JUMP BALL

Daemen looks to represent the East Region in the Elite Eight for a second straight year when they face seventh-seeded Pace in the finals Monday night. The Wildcats return to the regional finals after wins over top-seed Southern New Hampshire (70-59 March 11) and No. 4 Jefferson (70-52 March 12.) Daemen looks to become the first ECC program to repeat as East Regional champions and the first overall since Bentley (2011, 2012.) Daemen is 20-1 over their last 21 contests and 21-3 against East Region opponents this season.

A MAGICAL RUN

The Wildcats earned their second consecutive NCAA tournament berth and captured their first regional title last March. After entering the tournament as the No. 2 seed in the East Regional, the Wildcats ran to a 73-54 win over third-seeded Georgian Court in the regional semifinals, marking the program's first-ever NCAA tournament victory. The Wildcats followed up with a 58-40 defeat of fifth-seeded Roberts Wesleyan in the regional final, avenging a loss just nine days prior in the ECC Championship final. Katie Titus was named the Most Outstanding Player of the East Regional after netting 22 points to go with seven rebounds, three blocks and two steals in the regional final. The postseason run came to an end just over a week later in Columbus, Ohio where the Wildcats suffered a 66-49 loss in the Elite Eight to top-seeded and eventual national champion Lubbock Christian.

RELOADED

Daemen is set to return 13 players, including four starters, from their regional championship team - players responsible for 78% of scoring, 81% of rebounds and 85% of their assists from a season ago. Among the returners is senior forward Katie Titus who was recently named the ECC Preseason Player of the Year. A 6-foot forward, Titus produced a career-high 14.8 points per game last season. She led the ECC in three-point field goals (48) and blocks (40) while also ranking second in rebounding (8.1 rpg) and third in scoring en route to earning honorable mention All-American honors. Redshirt senior guard Tiara Filbert - the 2020-21 ECC Preseason Player of the Year - is also set to return after being limited to just eight games by an injury last season. A three-time All-ECC selection, Filbert enters her final collegiate season with 1,096 points in 93 games played. Senior forward Mickayla Ivy (9.4 ppg, 6.5 rpg) and sophomore guard Alahna Paige (2020-21 ECC Rookie of the Year) also return.

BANK ON IT

Jenepher Banker returns for her sixth season on the Daemen bench and her 11th overall as a collegiate head coach. With Daemen's 70-52 victory over

Jefferson on March 12, Banker recorded her 100th win with the Wildcats, with 77 of those victories coming over the past four seasons (100-54 with Daemen.) The Wildcats' success under Banker includes a 23-win season in 2019-20 (a benchmark for wins during the program's NCAA Division II era), three consecutive regular season conference titles, two ECC tournament championships and three NCAA tournament berths. She was named the 2021 ECC Coach of the Year and co-shared the award this season. Including her five seasons as the head coach at Penn State Behrend, Banker recorded her 150th win at the collegiate level in Daemen's 76-59 victory at Staten Island on December 17.

IN THE POLLS

For the first time in the program's NCAA Division II era (2015-present), Daemen was nationally ranked to start the season. Daemen was ranked 20th in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Preseason Top 25 Coaches Poll and eighth in the Division II Sports Information Directors of America (D2SIDA) Preseason Media Poll. The Wildcats ended the 2020-21 season ranked eighth in both polls - the first time they've finished a season in the national rankings. Daemen was ranked eighth in D2SIDA's latest East Region Poll. The Wildcats have now been ranked in 34 consecutive D2SIDA regional polls, since January 2019. In the NCAA Division II East Region rankings, Daemen was ranked eighth (Feb. 16), 10th (Feb. 23.) and ninth (March 2.)

THE TERRIFIC TITUS

By converting a free-throw in the second quarter of a 54-53 win over Angelo State on November 19, senior Katie Titus became the 27th member of Daemen's 1,000-point club. In 99 career games (91 starts), Titus has totaled 1,485 points, 784 rebounds, 158 blocked shots and 192 career three-pointers. Titus ranks eighth in career scoring, seventh in career rebounding, sixth in career blocks and third in three-point shooting all-time at Daemen. Titus has crossed double-figures in 24 of Daemen's 26 contests with 20.3 points and 8.1 rebounds per game. The 2022 ECC Player of the Year, Titus is now 15 points and 16 rebounds shy of becoming the seventh player in program history to record 1,500 points and 800 rebounds in a career.

HIGH ECC-XPECTATIONS

For the second straight season, Daemen has been selected as the preseason favorite to win the ECC. The Wildcats were the near unanimous choice atop the ECC Preseason Coaches' Poll, garnering nine of the 10 first-place votes and 97 points. The Wildcats posted a 9-0 ECC record last season - the program's first unbeaten conference season since 2003-04 - and hold a 57-9 conference mark since the start of the 2018-19 season.

#7 PACE SCOUTING REPORT

The Pace Setters are members of the Northeast-10 Conference and are led by 29-year head coach Carrie Seymour. The Setters are 23-7 overall (14-5 in NE-10 play) and saw their 2020-21 cancelled due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. The Rams advanced to Monday's regional finals following victories against No. 2 Chestnut Hill (59-53 on Mar. 11) and No. 3 USciences (65-60 on Mar. 12.) and now have a chance to reach the Elite Eight for just the third time in program history (1985, 2001.) Monday is also Pace's first appearance in the NCAA East Regional finals since a 64-61 loss versus Bentley in March 2011. Seymour enters Monday with a 509-341 record coaching the Setters.

Five players return from Pace's 2019-20 team that finished 19-10 overall (12-7 NE-10) and lost to Assumption College in the first round of the NE-10 Conference tournament on Feb. 28, 2020.

Graduate student forward Lauren Schetter leads the team in points per game (19.3) and rebounds per game (7.8) while shooting 48% from the field. Schetter also finished in double-figure scoring in 27 of Pace's 30 games this season. Senior guard Lauren Hackett is second in points per game (9.8) along with a team-high 4.2 assists per game. Graduate student Naya Rivera is third in scoring, averaging 6.0 points per contest.

Including Saturday night against USciences, Pace has won 19 of their last 26 contests since early December.

Did you know Monday will be the first time a No. 7 seed faces a No. 8 seed in the regional finals since Francis Marion defeated Augusta in the NCAA DII Southeast Regional finals on March 14, 2016? Daemen is trying to become the first ECC program and the first program in the East region to go back-to-back since Bentley (2011 and 2012.) Daemen is also 8-0 this season when converting 10+ three-pointers in a single contest. Daemen has won their last 26 contests since the 2017-18 season when doing so. The last loss came versus Gannon (68-64) on November 28, 2017.

Sweet 16 Bound! Wildcats defeat Jefferson, 70-52, in East Regional Semifinals Saturday

Titus posts 34 points and 14 rebounds to lead Wildcat return to East Regional finals Monday versus No. 7 Pace

Manchester, N.H. – One game at a time.

Since arriving for the 2022 NCAA East Regionals earlier this week, Daemen women's basketball has had the same approach and mentality as their postseason run has continued. A mentality that has become part of the program's identity over the past couple seasons.

And now, the Wildcats have another game to prepare for: an opportunity to defend their NCAA East Regional title and return to the Elite Eight.

With an electric 34-point effort on 15-of-21 from the floor and a trio of third-quarter three-pointers from senior Katie Titus (Penfield, N.Y.) to spark the Daemen offense, eighth-seeded Daemen defeated fourth-seeded Jefferson, 70-52, in the second semifinal contest held Saturday night at the Stan Spirou Field House on the campus of Southern New Hampshire. This came just one night after Daemen defeated top-seeded Southern New Hampshire, 70-59, in the regional quarterfinals.

The victory continues Daemen's new journey in the 2022 NCAA Tournament when they face No. 7 Pace in the East Regional finals on Monday March 14 at 7 p.m. Pace advanced after knocking off No. 3 Chestnut Hill, 65-60, in earlier action Saturday. The Wildcats now improve to 22-4 on the season (16-1 ECC regular season) while Jefferson concludes its season with a 22-9 record (11-5 CACC regular season). Saturday night continued Daemen's winning ways this season. In this span, the Wildcats have now seven consecutive contests and 20 of their last 21 contests since early December and are now 21-3 against East Region opponents this season.

Saturday's win also marked the 100th victory for sixth-year head coach Jenepher Banker, who reached the milestone in 154 career games with the Wildcats. Banker, who previously spent five seasons coaching at Penn State Behrend from 1988 to 1993, recorded her milestone 150th win at the collegiate level in Daemen's 76-59 victory at Staten Island on December 17, 2021. Banker is also 9-0 against Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference opponents in her Wildcat coaching career.

Despite redshirt senior Tiara Filbert (Batavia, N.Y.) picking up two fouls within the first minute after her 27-point night against the Penmen less than 24 hours before-hand, the Wildcat offense had another strong start on their weekend stay. A three-pointer from freshman Sydney Hvizdzak (Little Valley, N.Y.) and Titus' first score of the night gave the Wildcats a 6-0 lead with 8:07 left in the first frame. The Rams, however, responded and scored nine unanswered points, off the momentum from top scorer and sophomore forward Haley Meinel to move in front, 9-6, with 6:30 left. Senior forward Mickayla Ivy (Grand Rapids, Mich.) ended Daemen's scoring drought with a drive to the basket to bring the deficit back within one point. The Rams expanded their lead to six points (14-8) with under four minutes left to cap what was a 14-2 run. Daemen though ended the frame with a 7-2 of their own over the last 2:45 as Hvizdzak drilled her second and final triple of the night and Titus scored twice. Jefferson held onto a 16-15 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Rams had a 20-17 lead in the early stages of the second quarter before the Wildcats heated up even more. A three-pointer from sophomore Alahna Paige (Rochester, N.Y.) tied the score at 20-20 with 7:32 left. In a flash, the Wildcats went on a 17-4 run with the clock winding down to just over three minutes left in the half as Titus made more shots inside the arc and eventually finished with 20 points at the half. The Rams finally stopped the bleeding with a three-pointer from freshman Sam Yencha and another driving lay-up from Meinel to spark a 7-2 run at the half, with the lone Wildcat basket coming from red-shirt junior Alaina Estrella (Brooklyn, N.Y.) during this stretch. Daemen had a 36-29 lead at halftime.

Then, Daemen's three-point shooting lit up the score-sheet in the third quarter as Titus continued to put on a shooting clinic, recording her three-point conversions on her three shots early in the frame. The last conversion gave Daemen a 50-37 lead with 4:53 remaining in the frame. Right when the Rams were able to respond, sophomore forward Natalie Angeletti (Panama, N.Y.) emerged with a pair of cuts to the basket on consecutive possessions to keep Daemen's double-digit lead. Titus later crossed the 30-point plateau with a jumper inside with under a minute remaining to give Daemen a 56-43 lead heading into the fourth quarter.

Scoring opportunities shifted its focus to the free-throw line as Filbert made six of her overall nine points at the free-throw line down the stretch. Titus also scored her final basket of the night off a pass from Filbert with under five minutes remaining. Junior forward Marina Maerkl (Binghamton, N.Y.) scored Daemen's final bucket with 0:02 remaining as Daemen scored at least 70 points in a contest for the sixth time in their last 11 contests.

IMPACT PLAYERS

- Along with recording 34 points in a game-high 39 minutes played, Titus also posted a team-high 14 rebounds for her team-high ninth double-double of the season. Including her 15-point, 12 rebound effort Friday against SNHU, this is now the second time where the 2021-22 ECC Player of the Year has recorded consecutive double-doubles this season (Dec 12-17, 2021.) Titus has now finished in double-figure scoring in 24 of Daemen's 27 contests this season and has now done so 72 times in her career.
- In addition to her nine points, Filbert finished with a team-high five assists in 21 minutes played.
- Angeletti scored four of her six points in the third quarter and recorded 10 rebounds in tonight's victory. NEXT JUMP BALL

In the battle of the two lowest seeds, No. 8 Daemen will now face No. 7 Pace in the NCAA DII East Regional finals at 7 p.m. on Monday, March 14 at Stan Spirou Field House. A victory sends the winning team to the Elite Eight held in Birmingham, Alabama from March 22-25. The Wildcats look to represent the East Region in consecutive years after defeating Roberts Wesleyan, 58-40, on their home court of Lumsden Gymnasium last March.

Upset Alert! Wildcats Take Down #1 SNHU In NCAA East Regional Quarterfinals, 70-59

Daemen now faces Jefferson in East Regional semifinals Saturday night at Stan Spirou Field House

MANCHESTER, N.H. – The last time a number eight seed defeated the top-seed in the NCAA DII Women's Basketball East Regionals was back in 2015 when Holy Family upset Adelphi in Garden City, N.Y. To put in perspective, when this happened, the current Daemen Wildcat players were playing at either the varsity or junior varsity level.

Tonight, Daemen's women's basketball added another notch to their lengthy resume – and, more importantly, live to fight another day.

Behind a game-high 27 points (17 in the second half alone) from redshirt senior Tiara Filbert (Batavia, N.Y.), the Wildcats defeated top-seeded Southern New Hampshire, 70-59, in the third of four quarterfinal matchups held in the Stan Spirou Field House in Manchester, N.H. Friday night.

With the victory, Daemen advances to the NCAA DII East Regional semifinals tomorrow and will face No. 4 Jefferson at 7:30 p.m. Daemen now stands at 21-4 overall (16-1 ECC regular season) while SNHU concludes its season at 21-7 overall (15-4 NE-10 regular season.) Since early December, the Wildcats have won 19 of their last 20 games and, including tonight's win against the Penmen, are 20-3 against East Region opponents this season.

In what was the first NCAA Tournament game of her career, Filbert shot a game-high 11-of-24 from the field to pace the Wildcats offensively. Once again, the Wildcats received quality contributions from both senior forwards Katie Titus (Penfield, N.Y.) and Mickayla Ivy (Grand Rapids, Mich.) Titus finished with 15 points and a team-high 12 rebounds while Ivy added 10 points and six rebounds.

The Penmen scored first off a Jenna Roche free-throw just over a minute into the ball-game. Then, the Daemen offense started scoring as sophomore guard Alahna Paige (Rochester, N.Y.) made two baskets and Ivy scored on the drive to take a 6-1 lead with 5:55 left. SNHU responded with a pair of jumpers, however, to bring the score within one, 6-5. Outside of a three-pointer from Karlee Ziliak at the 2:11 mark to bring the score within a basket (10-8), it was the Wildcats – and specifically, Filbert – that found success offensively all inside the paint. Filbert converted Daemen's final four shots of the first quarter – the last made on a turnaround jumper – and gave the Wildcats a 14-8 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Daemen's lead was trimmed to four points (14-10) following Roche's jumper to start the second quarter. The Wildcats, however, were able to pull away as a three-pointer and later a put-back shot in the paint from Titus helped build a 19-12 lead with 3:30 remaining in the first half. The Penmen then roared to life and, thanks to a trio of three-point field goals over the last three minutes, outscored the Wildcats' 13-4 to go into the locker room with a 25-23 lead at the half. The three-point shooting came for the Penmen in the last minute of the break as a make from junior Ariana Koivisto with 0:47 left brought SNHU within one (23-22) before Ziliak drilled a shot in the right corner with 0:06 remaining.

The scoring went back and forth in the second half as five of the game's nine lead changes occurred in the third quarter alone. After a pair of baskets from Ivy gave Daemen a 29-28 lead, the two teams exchanged three-point field goals from Ziliak and then Paige in less than a minute span. Ivy's jumper gave Daemen a three-pointer lead but Ziliak drew the contact inside and completed the old-fashioned three-point play to tied the score at 34-34 with 4:38 left in the third quarter. After the score was later tied again at 36-36 with 4:08 left, Daemen regained the lead and momentum as sophomore Natalie Angeletti (Panama, N.Y.) scored her only two buckets of the night around the rim to help give Daemen a seven-point lead, 46-39, with 40 seconds left. The Penmen would not go down without a fight as Roche's three-pointer with 10 seconds remaining kept the regional hosts within striking distance, 46-42.

Ivy kept Daemen going with her final score of the evening within the first seconds of the fourth quarter (48-42) before SNHU sophomore forward Jessica Knight responded with a basket-and-the-foul to cut the lead down to three (48-45) with just over eight minutes remaining. Daemen responded with a drive to the basket from Filbert and a jumper from Titus to give the Wildcats a 52-45, prompting a Penmen timeout with 7 minutes to play. The timeout seemed to work as SNHU responded with a 7-2 run over the next two minutes – capped off from another three-point play from Knight – to cut Daemen's lead down to 54-52 with 4:50 left.

That's when sophomore Kaytlyn Matz (Johnsburg, Ill.) entered the scoring picture for Daemen, who had a 56-52 lead with just over three minutes left. On three consecutive possessions, Matz scored all seven of her points tonight as she knocked down a three-pointer and scored twice on cuts to the basket – all to give Daemen a 63-54 lead with under a minute remaining. The Penmen tried to catch up, however, the Wildcats had by then gained enough ground and continued making free-throws. Filbert capped off Daemen's scoring with two free-throws with 0:24 left in the contest (70-59.)

IMPACT PLAYERS

- Along with recording 27 points, Filbert added three rebounds, two assists and two rebounds in 38 minutes played. With the 27-point outing, Filbert now holds the program's individual record for most points scored in a NCAA Tournament game, surpassing teammate Katie Titus' 22-point performance versus Roberts Wesleyan in the NCAA East Regional finals on March 23, 2021. Tonight was the 14th time this season and 71st time in her Daemen career that Filbert has finished a contest in double-figure scoring.
- The 2021-22 ECC Player of the Year, Titus connected on 5-of-16 from the floor and made her lone three-pointer of the evening at the 7:07 mark of the second quarter. Titus also finished with a team-high 12 rebounds for her eighth double-double of the season and team-high 23rd game in double-figure scoring. The veteran also finished with team-highs in assists (4) and blocks (3.) Like Filbert, this was the 71st time in her Daemen career that Filbert has finished a contest in double-figure scoring.
- Ivy scored eight of her 10 points in the second half alone along with six rebounds, two assists and one block. The All-ECC Third Team member recorded her 14th contest in double-figure scoring this season, including in 13 of Daemen's last 21 contests.
- Paige added seven points, four rebounds and two assists apiece in the victory. Her classmate, Matz, recorded eight rebounds and two steals along with her late seven-point outing.
- Angeletti's four points in the third quarter were all that came off Daemen's bench in the win.
- Six different players scored for SNHU in their loss tonight. Graduate student guard Karlee Ziliak scored a team-high 19 points, 13 in the second half alone, and finished a game-high 4-of-10 from beyond the arc. Forward Jessica Knight recorded a double-double (16 points, 10 rebounds) to finish her sophomore campaign. Junior forward Ariana Koivisto and senior guard Jenna Roche recorded nine points and eight points, respectively.

GAME NOTES

- The Wildcats entered the game ranked ninth in the third and final NCAA Division II East Region rankings.
- Daemen has reached the 20-win plateau for the second time in the past three seasons. The Wildcats went 23-5, claimed its first-ever ECC Tournament title and made their first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 2019-20.
- Tonight was the inaugural meeting between Daemen and Southern New Hampshire. This was also the Penmen's first NCAA Tournament contest in program history since the 1989-90 season.
- The Wildcats shot 29-of-64 (45.3%) from the floor. Daemen also finished 3-of-17 (17.6%) from beyond the arc against the Penmen, knocking down two of them in the second half alone.
- Daemen finished with 12 assists on 29 field goals. It was only the eighth time this season that the Wildcats did not record 15+ assists in a single contest and the first time since a 61-53 loss vs. St. Thomas Aquinas on Feb. 18, where they also posted 12 assists (seven games.)
- Daemen also finished 9-of-12 (75%) from the free-throw line against the Penmen.
- Southern New Hampshire shot 22-of-73 (30.1%) from the floor. The Penmen also finished 7-of-25 (28.0%) from three-point land, knocking down four of them in the first half. The Penmen also finished 8-of-10 (80%) at the free-throw line.
- Daemen recorded 49 rebounds, including nine on the offensive glass. Daemen has now out-rebounded their opponent in 22 of 25 games this season.
- Daemen out-edged SNHU in the categories of points off turnovers (8-7) and points in the paint (34-22.) However, the Penmen won the battle in second-chance opportunities (9-8), fast-break scoring (6-2) and points off the bench (21-4.)

ECC CHAMPION WILDCATS PUNCH TICKET TO THIRD STRAIGHT NCAA TOURNEY

AMHERST, N.Y. – After winning their second East Coast Conference tournament championship in three years, Daemen College returns to the NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Championship for a third consecutive season which gets underway later this week with regional tournaments across the country. In a return to a traditional format, the full 64-team NCAA tournament bracket was announced late this evening in a selection show broadcast on NCAA.com.

The tournament field is broken down into eight regions, consisting of eight teams each. Daemen is one of 23 conference champions to earn an automatic qualifying bid to the tournament. The Division II Women's Basketball Committee selects the remaining 41 at-large bids.

For a second straight season, Daemen is the No. 8 seed in the East Region and will face the top-seeded Southern New Hampshire Penmen of the Northeast-10 Conference in a quarterfinal matchup this Friday, March 11. The contest will be held in the Stan Spirou Field House on the campus of Southern New Hampshire University in Manchester, N.H. Southern New Hampshire will also have hosting privileges for the entire regional tournament. Additional first-round matchups include No. 2 Chestnut Hill of the Central Atlantic Collegiate conference taking on No. 7 Pace of the Northeast-10 Conference, No. 3 USciences of the CACC meeting No. 6 Le Moyne of the Northeast-10 Conference and fourth-seeded Jefferson of the CACC facing fifth-seeded Bentley of the Northeast-10 Conference. As a whole, four teams will represent the NE-10, three represent the CACC and Daemen is the lone representative from the ECC.

Game times, ticket and broadcast information for the East Region Championship will be announced later this week.

Daemen will enter NCAA tournament play with a 20-4 record. After capturing a third consecutive ECC regular-season title with a 16-1 conference mark, the Wildcats went on to win the ECC tournament for the second time in three seasons this weekend in the friendly confines of Lumsden Gymnasium. Serving as the No. 1 seed, the Wildcats downed long-time rival and fourth-seeded Roberts Wesleyan, 84-62, in the semifinals. In Sunday's tournament final, the Wildcats had a late surge in the second half to defeat second-seeded Molloy in a 74-67 triumph. The Wildcats have won 18 of their last 19 contests since the first week of December and are the first program in East Coast Conference history to clinch the regular season crown in three straight years since former member New Haven from 2006-08 and the third overall since 1991. Since the 2018-19 campaign, the blue-and-white have recorded four consecutive seasons with a winning percentage and have posted two seasons of at least 20 wins (2020, 2022.)

Since becoming an official NCAA Division II member in the 2015-16 season, Daemen has brought national attention to Western New York and now return to the "Big Dance" for a third straight season. Daemen was set to face Stonehill in a NCAA East Regional quarterfinal matchup on March 13, 2020 before the NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Tournament was cancelled in its entirety due to the start of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. Daemen then hosted the 2021 NCAA East Regional in Lumsden Gymnasium last March and punched their ticket to the Elite Eight held in Columbus, Ohio with wins against Georgian Court (73-54 on March 13) and again Roberts Wesleyan (58-40 on March 15) for a fifth and final meeting in the abbreviated 2020-21 campaign. The Wildcats then saw their season end with a 66-49 loss to the eventual national champion Lubbock Christian on March 23, 2021 but finished with a stellar 14-3 record.

Top-seeded and NCAA East Regional host Southern New Hampshire will enter the NCAA tournament with a 21-6 record. The Penmen had previously earned the top-seed in the NE10 Women's Basketball Championship but fell to fourth-seeded Southern Connecticut State in the quarterfinals, 71-64, on Feb. 28 – snapping a six-game winning streak as a result. SNHU's 21 wins this winter are the most in a single season in program history since the 1989-90 campaign, when they finished 22-8 overall. The 1989-90 season was also the last time the Penmen appeared in the NCAA Tournament before this season.

Friday will be the inaugural meeting between Daemen and Southern New Hampshire. Daemen is 0-2 against NE-10 teams this season – a 75-70 loss versus St. Anselm in the Redhawks Classic in Rochester, N.Y. on Nov. 12 and a 68-66 loss hosting Stonehill on Nov. 30 in Lumsden Gymnasium. These were two of just three losses to East Region opponents for the Wildcats this season (19-3 record.) The Daemen-SNHU winner advances to Saturday's regional semifinals to face either Jefferson or Bentley.

Winners of the eight regional tournaments will advance to the Elite Eight which is slated for March 21-25 at the Birmingham (Ala.) CrossPlex.

Let's Dance: Wildcats Hold Off Lions For ECC Tournament Crown

Daemen Headed To The NCAA Tournament For The Third-Straight Year

AMHERST, N.Y. - Tournament Most Outstanding Player Kaytlyn Matz (Johnsburg, Ill.) totaled a career-high 19 points and a career-high 10 rebounds to lead top-seeded Daemen College to a 74-67 victory over second-seeded Molloy College in the championship game of the 2022 East Coast Conference Women's Basketball Tournament today at Lumsden Gymnasium on the Daemen campus.

The Wildcats claimed their second ECC Tournament title in the past three years and with it the ECC's automatic bid to the 64-team National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division II Tournament. The entire NCAA Tournament field will be unveiled tonight at 10 p.m. Daemen is the defending NCAA Division II East Region champion and will be making its third-straight appearance in the championship field.

Daemen, which was making its third-straight appearance in the ECC Tournament championship game, improves to 20-4 on the year. Molloy, which had won 10 of its last 11 games, closed out the year at 17-10.

Daemen opened the game with a three-pointer from Matz and the hosts later took an 8-0 lead following another triple by Matz with just under seven minutes left in the first quarter. Molloy regrouped following a timeout and eventually cut the lead to two points, 12-10, midway through the quarter. The Wildcats then embarked on a 14-0 run over the next 3:45. A hook shot in the lane by senior Mickayla Ivy (Grand Rapids, Mich.) with a minute left in the quarter capped the run and gave the Wildcats a 26-10 lead. Daemen took a 28-11 lead into the second quarter.

After shooting 9-of-18 in the first quarter, the Wildcats connected on just 3-of-15 shots in the second quarter, but the Lions were unable to make a substantial dent in the Daemen lead. Daemen held a 30-17 lead with just under seven minutes to play before halftime, but neither team scored until redshirt sophomore Alina Estrella (Brooklyn, N.Y.) connected on a jumper with three minutes to play to give the Wildcats a 32-17 lead. Molloy quickly cut the lead to 10 points, 32-22, but the score remained that way until Estrella took a feed from freshman Alahna Paige (Rochester, N.Y.) and drilled a buzzer-beating three pointer to give the Wildcats a 35-22 halftime lead.

Daemen took a 44-28 lead three minutes into the third quarter after redshirt senior Tiara Filbert (Batavia, N.Y.) hit a step back three-pointer, but the Lions put together a 13-4 run and cut the lead to seven points, 48-41, following a layup by freshman Janel Moore with 1:38 left in the quarter. Matz answered with her fifth three-pointer of the game on Daemen's next possession and the Wildcats would take a 53-45 lead into the final quarter.

Molloy outscored the Wildcats 8-2 over the first 2:22 of the final quarter, but Daemen got a layup from Ivy and a big three-pointer from the top of the key by Paige to regain a seven point lead, 60-53. The Daemen lead was five points, 63-58, when the Lions got two free throws by Moore and a three-pointer by sophomore Trinity Hudson to knot the game at 63-63 with three minutes to play. A conventional three-point play by senior Katie Titus (Penfield, N.Y.) then gave Daemen a 66-63 lead. Both teams came up empty on their next possession and Hudson made one of two free throws with 1:50 left to make it a two point game. Titus then fed Filbert for a layup to give the hosts a 68-64 advantage with 1:33 left. The score remained that way until Matz came up with a big offensive rebound and was fouled with 1:05 to play. She made both free throws to make it a six point lead, and the advantage eventually went back to double digits, 74-64, after Titus made two free throws with 27 seconds to play. Moore closed out the scoring with a three-pointer with eight seconds left.

Women's Basketball Receives All-Conference Honors

Titus & Banker Claim Major Awards

AMHERST, N.Y. – Senior Katie Titus (Penfield, N.Y.) headlined the All-East Coast Conference selections from the Daemen College women's basketball team as she was named the ECC Women's Basketball Player of the Year and selected to the All-ECC first-team today. Titus is one of three Wildcat players to earn All-ECC honors for the 2021-22 season. The announcement of All-ECC teams was made this afternoon in a press release from conference headquarters on Long Island.

For a second straight season, redshirt senior Tiara Filbert (Batavia, N.Y.) joined Titus on the All-ECC first-team, each earning this honor for the third time in their respective careers. Senior Mickayla Ivy (Grand Rapids, Mich.) collected all-league honors in consecutive seasons as she was named to the All-ECC third-team.

Head coach Jenepher Banker received ECC Co-Coach of the Year honors after leading the Wildcats to a third consecutive regular season title. It marks the second straight season where Banker been recognized by her peers as the top coach in the conference, sharing this year's award with Joe Pellicane of Molloy College. She is the first to receive this honor in consecutive years since former St. Thomas Aquinas College head coach Kim Lusk (2018-19, 2019-20 seasons).

Titus, a 6-foot forward, joined former teammate Caroline White (2021) as the only women's basketball players from Daemen to be named ECC Player of the Year. She has scored in double figures in 21 of 22 games (18 consecutive) and finished the regular season averaging 20.7 points per game - best in the ECC and among the top 10 scorers across all of NCAA Division II. The conference leader in free-throw percentage (89.3), Titus also ranks fourth in the ECC in field goal percentage (46.0), fifth in three-pointers made (57) and 10th in rebounds per game (8.7) and total blocks (24). Titus has been named the ECC Player of the Week five times and ECC Defensive Player of the Week three times - the most for any player in the league in both categories this season.

In 95 career games, Titus has made 87 starts and totaled 1,413 points, 745 rebounds and 151 blocked shots. The 2021-22 ECC Preseason Player of the Year, Titus ranks eighth all-time in career scoring, 10th in career rebounding, seventh in career blocks, third in career three-point field-goals made (187) and first in free-throw percentage (.854) in program history. She is the first player to record 1,400 points, 750 rebounds, 150 blocks and 150 three-point field goals in program history. Today's announcement marks the third major ECC award of her career. She was named the ECC Rookie of the Year following the 2018-19 season, and last spring was named the ECC Women's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Earlier this season, Titus became the first Daemen women's basketball player to be named to the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-District Team.

Filbert was named to the All-ECC first team for a third consecutive season. A one-time ECC Defensive Player of the Week selection, the 5-foot-9 guard has scored in double figures in 12 contests and leads the team in assists per game (4.0). Filbert is also second among Daemen players in points (11.0), rebounds (7.1) and steals per game (1.1). For a second straight season, Filbert leads all Wildcat players in minutes per game (33.2). Among ECC leaders, Filbert ranks fifth in assists per game and inside the top-20 in points per game and rebounds per game. Filbert recorded her 1,000th career point in Daemen's win over Mercyhurst to kick off their COVID-19 abbreviated 2020-21 campaign and has now scored 1,339 points in 115 career games (106 starts). Filbert enters the ECC tournament ranked 12th in career points and tied for ninth in career assists (339) among Daemen's all-time leaders.

Filbert and Titus, who are both now four-time All-ECC recipients, are joined on the All-ECC first-team by Gabriella Aspuru and Safiyyah Lee of Molloy, Katie Wall of Mercy and Sara Pfeiffer of D'Youville. Aspuru was also named the ECC's Defensive Player of the Year.

After a breakout year where she was named to the All-ECC second-team last winter, Ivy was named to the All-ECC third-team for the 2021-22 campaign. So far this season, the 5-foot-10 forward has started all 22 contests and is third on the team in points (9.3) and rebounds per game (6.1). She reached double-figure scoring 11 times, including in 10 of Daemen's last 18 contests. Ivy recorded just the second 20+-point performance of her career in the team's season-opening loss versus St. Anselm (75-70). Among the ECC leaders, Ivy ranks third in field goal percentage (.491) and inside the top-20 in rebounds per game. After recording only four starts through her first two seasons, Ivy has now appeared in Daemen's starting lineup in 39 consecutive contests since the start of the 2020-21 season.

Ivy is joined on the All-ECC third team by Latavia Jackson and Destiny Ryles of District Columbia, Chelsea Reeves of Queens and Jenalyse Alarcon of Staten Island.

With Banker at the helm, Daemen has developed into one of the most consistent teams in the ECC and NCAA Division II East Region. This winter, the Wildcats finished the regular season at 18-4 overall and 16-1 in ECC play and clinched a third consecutive ECC regular season title. Since the start of the 2019-20 season, the Wildcats are now 55-12 overall (38-4 ECC), punched their tickets to the NCAA tournament in the 2020 and 2021 seasons, won the 2021 NCAA Division II East Regional championship and advanced to the Elite Eight for the first time in the program's NCAA era (2015-present). Earlier this season, Banker recorded her 150th career win at the collegiate level with a 76-59 win at Staten Island on Dec. 17. Now in her sixth season as head coach at Daemen, Banker owns a career record of 96-54 with the Wildcats – 73 of those wins coming since the start of the 2018-19 season. Daemen is now 69-14 in its last 83 games, a span that dates back to mid-January of 2019. Daemen is also 57-9 in East Coast Conference play since the start of the 2018-19 season.

Since the 2007-08 season, Banker is now the fifth head coach to receive the prestigious honor multiple times. She joins Queens College head coach Bet Naumovski (2012-13, 2016-17), Deirdre Moore of LIU Post (2013-14, 2017-18) and the aforementioned Lusk (2010-11, 2018-19, 2019-20 at St. Thomas Aquinas) and Pellicane (2008-09 and 2011-12 at Dowling, 2021-22 at Molloy) on the list.

Including finishing as co-champions with St. Thomas Aquinas in 2020, Daemen is now the third program in ECC history to win the regular season title in three consecutive seasons. The Wildcats are the first to accomplish the feat since the University of New Haven (now in NE-10) did so from 2006-08. The College of St. Rose (now in NE-10) still holds the league record for most consecutive ECC regular season championships when they won in each year from 1995 to 2000 – the last four accomplished with unbeaten records.

Top-seeded Daemen (18-4) will face long-time rival, fourth-seeded Roberts Wesleyan, in the first semifinal contest of the 2022 ECC Championship on Saturday, March 5 at 12 p.m. at Lumsden Gymnasium. Second-seeded Molloy then squares off with third-seeded St. Thomas Aquinas at 3 p.m. The 2022 ECC Championship final is scheduled for Sunday, March 6 at 12 p.m.

JENEPPER BANKER

HEAD COACH • SIXTH SEASON • SPRINGFIELD, '85

Jenepher Banker will embark on her sixth season as the head women's basketball coach at Daemen College in 2021-22 as she continues to build Western New York's premier NCAA Division II program. Banker was introduced in 2016 as the fourth head coach in the modern era of the program and has since led the Wildcats to a 100-54 overall record and a 70-26 mark in East Coast Conference play.

The veteran mentor has presided over the program's resurgence in recent years, leading the Wildcats to three consecutive ECC regular season championships, two ECC tournament titles, three straight NCAA tournament berths and the 2021 East Regional finals. From early January of 2019 through the start of the 2021-22 season, Banker's Wildcats are 73-14.

The 2020-21 season was a historic one as Banker guided the Wildcats to the NCAA Division II East Region championship, advancing to the Elite Eight for the first time in the program's NCAA era. It was a remarkable run, especially considering the circumstances. The start of the season was delayed until mid-January due to the COVID-19 pandemic, but once it got underway, the Wildcats were off and running. They rattled off 12 wins in their first 13 contests with the only setback coming against nationally ranked Gannon. The success included a 9-0 run through ECC play as the Wildcats completed an unbeaten conference slate for just the third time in program history.

After stumbling in the final round of the ECC Championship, Banker refocused the group heading into NCAA tournament play. With the East Regional held on their home floor at Lumsden Gymnasium, the second-seeded Wildcats ousted third-seeded Georgian Court 73-54 to secure the program's first-ever NCAA tournament victory. Banker and the squad would go on to cut down the nets following a 58-40 win over fifth-seeded and long-time rival Roberts Wesleyan in the regional final, avenging their conference tournament loss to the Redhawks and snapping their region-best nine-game winning streak in the process.

Daemen's historic run came to an end at the Greater Columbus (Ohio) Convention Center where, as the No. 8 seed, they fell 66-49 to top-seeded and eventual national champion Lubbock Christian. The Wildcats ended the year ranked eighth in national polls conducted by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) and Division II Sports Information Directors of America (D2SIDA). They were driven all season by their defense, finishing third in the country in both scoring defense (51.6 ppg) and field goal percentage defense (.325).

Banker guided the squad to a 23-5 overall record - the program's first 20-win season since 2012-13 - as well as a share of the ECC regular season championship and the ECC tournament title during the 2019-20 campaign. They did so by combining stingy defense with solid offensive production, especially from behind the three-point arc. The Wildcats allowed just 55.0 points per game, ranking 13th in the country, and went 9-1 when holding opponents to less than 50 points. On the offensive end, Daemen set program records for three-pointers made in a game (20 vs. Queens on January 10) and season (238) and ranked first in the ECC for three-pointers made per game (8.5). Daemen's +14.1 scoring margin also topped the ECC and ranked 30th nationally.

The team's success in 2019-20 included a 13-game winning streak spanning some 69 days - the longest winning streak of the program's NCAA Division II era. The Wildcats also posted a 9-0 record at home, going undefeated for the third time in program history and for the first time since 2007-08.

After going 13-3 during the conference regular season, the Wildcats experienced postseason success with two wins at the ECC tournament which was played at the UDC Sports Complex in Washington, D.C. Second-seeded Daemen knocked off third-seeded to a 68-56 win over fourth-seeded Molloy in the finals, riding the double-double performance (24 points, 13 rebounds) of sophomore forward Katie Titus who was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player.

The conference tournament title came with an automatic bid to the 2020 NCAA tournament. Daemen was awarded the No. 7 seed in the East Region, and was set to make its NCAA tournament debut against second-seeded Stonehill. However, the tournament was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The groundwork for championship seasons was laid in the years prior. Inheriting a team that won nine games in the season before her arrival, Banker led the team to 11 wins in her debut season and 12 more during the 2017-18 campaign which included the program's first ECC tournament berth.

In 2018-19, Banker led the Wildcats to an 18-10 overall record and a 15-3 mark in conference games. The 15 conference wins established a new benchmark for Daemen's ECC era as the Wildcats placed second in the ECC standings. The Wildcats also achieved their first-ever regional ranking at the Division II level that season, debuting in the D2SIDA East Region media poll in a tie for No. 10 on February 4. They later debuted at No. 10 in the official NCAA regional poll released on February 20. Daemen's ascent into the regional conversation came in the midst of winning 14 of their final 15 regular season contests, including a streak of 11 in a row. Banker picked up her 100th win as a collegiate head coach along the way, a 79-47 defeat of conference foe District of Columbia on on January 27.

Over her first five seasons at the helm, Banker has played an integral role in the development of eight all-conference players. Those players account for 14 total all-conference selections, including first-team picks Sarah Saba (2017, 2018), Katie Titus (2019, 2021), Tiara Filbert (2020, 2021) and Caroline White (2020, 2021). Additionally, Titus (2019 ECC Rookie of the Year), White (2021 ECC Player of the Year) and Alahna Paige (2021 ECC Rookie of the Year) have garnered major ECC awards during Banker's tenure. Also in 2021, Banker was named the ECC Coach of the Year while White and Titus picked up honorable mention All-American honors from the WBCA.

Banker holds more than 30 years of coaching experience at various levels, ranging from Division I to high school. Her first collegiate experience came as an assistant coach at Iowa State University, then of the Big Eight Conference, from 1986-88, and later as an assistant at Canisius College from 1993-95.

Between assistant coaching stops, Banker served as the head coach at Penn State-Behrend in Erie, Pa. While there, she led the Lions' NCAA Division III program to a 67-61 overall record, including a 41-12 mark in her final two seasons. Her 1991-92 team went 23-4, winning the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) South Region championship. That season, her team garnered Penn State-Behrend's first-ever national ranking in any sport. She still ranks second all-time in coaching victories, and was inducted into Penn State-Behrend's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1994.

Later, Banker settled at the high school level, coaching the varsity team at Grand Island High School from 1998-2013, building the Lady Vikings into a regional contender with seven Section VI championships, four appearances in the Far West Regional, and one appearance at the New York State final four. During her tenure, Banker's teams were recognized with the New York State Scholar-Athlete Team Award for 15 straight seasons, and she developed 10 players that went on to play college basketball, as well as four of the five 1,000-point scorers in school history.

In addition, Banker has also coached twice in the Empire State Games, formerly a set of annual Olympic-style competitions for amateur athletes from the state of New York.

Banker, who played collegiately and was an Academic All-American and 1,000-point scorer at Springfield College (Mass.), graduated Magna Cum Laude in 1985 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Physical Education. She would later add a Master of Science Degree in Athletic Administration from Iowa State in 1988. After serving as a physical education instructor at Iowa State, Penn State-Behrend and Canisius, she had, since 1998, been a physical education teacher in the Grand Island School District where she has also served as the Director of Community Education.

She resides in Grand Island with her husband, Brett. Together, the couple has raised two children. Their son, Kolby, is the head women's soccer coach at Erie Community College. Their daughter, Kallie, is a former Division I basketball player at both the University of Rhode Island and the University of Vermont, who now serves as Daemen's top assistant.

SWEET CAROLINE

The biggest missing piece from last season is forward Caroline White who was lost to graduation last spring. White earned ECC Player of the Year honors last season after averaging 15.2 points (second in ECC) and 8.5 rebounds (first in ECC) per game.

T IT UP

Daemen has regained the services of redshirt senior guard Tiara Filbert to start the 2021-22 season. A three-time All-ECC selection, Filbert missed the final nine games last season with an injury. She has appeared in 119 games and 110 starts in her career and currently ranks 10th in career scoring (1,402) and ninth in career assists (355.) In Daemen's 2020-21 season opener, she became the 25th member of the program's 1,000 Point Club. Filbert is one of one four players in program history with 1,300 points, 550 rebounds and 300 assists.

BREAKOUT SEASON

After averaging 2.8 points and 2.6 rebounds per game in her first two seasons, senior forward Mickayla Ivy had a breakout year in 2020-21. She started all 17 contests, averaged 9.4 points and 6.5 rebounds per game while shooting 50% from the field and was an All-ECC Second Team selection. This season, Ivy has started all 26 contests, was named to the All-ECC Third Team, and is third on the team in both points per game (9.6) and rebounds per game (5.9) and has finished in double-figure scoring 14 times, including in 13 of Daemen's last 22 contests.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

Daemen has held 58 of its last 70 opponents to 65 points or less, posting a 53-5 record in those games. The Wildcats were among the best defensive teams in the country in 2020-21, ranking third nationally in both field goal percentage defense (.325) and scoring defense (51.6).

SUSTAINED SUCCESS

Daemen has posted a 73-14 record in their last 87 games, a span that dates back to mid-January of 2019. The Wildcats have won 12 of their 18 regular season, non-conference games in that time.

FRESH FACES

Daemen welcomes just two newcomers to the roster this season. Junior guard Sarah Cloutier is a transfer from NAIA affiliate Southeastern where she appeared in 38 games over two seasons while helping the Fire post a 53-6 record. Guard Sydney Hvizdzak is the lone freshmen on Daemen's roster. She comes to the Wildcats after earning All-Western New York honors last winter when she averaged 26.9 points and 9.6 rebounds per game while leading Randolph to the Section VI Class C title game. Hvizdzak is one of only 15 women in Section VI history to surpass 2,000 career points.

CACC DOMINANCE

Since gaining full NCAA membership in 2015, Daemen is 10-1 against affiliates of the Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference. Under head coach Jenepher Banker, the Wildcats won their ninth straight game with a CACC opponent when they defeated Jefferson 70-52 on March 12 in the NCAA East Regional semifinals.

BATTLING THE NE10'S BEST

Daemen only played two Northeast-10 Conference opponents this season, both of whom were picked in the top four of the NE10 Northeast Division preseason coaches' poll. The Wildcats suffered a five-point loss to Saint Anselm (picked third) in their season opener and two-point loss to Stonehill (picked first) on Nov. 30. Contests with Bentley (Jan. 2) and Le Moyne (Dec. 30) were cancelled due to COVID-19 protocols.

TEXAS SQUEAKER

Mickayla Ivy hit a jumper with 19 seconds to go and then secured a defensive rebound to help Daemen get past Angelo State, 54-53, in the opening round of the Lady Chap Classic hosted by Lubbock Christian on Nov. 19. It was the Wildcats' first one-point victory since defeating rival Roberts Wesleyan, 70-69, on Jan. 20, 2015. Katie Titus scored 22 points - including the 1,000th of her career - and grabbed 10 rebounds to lead the Wildcats past the Belles.

ELITE REMATCH

On Nov. 20, Daemen suffered a 62-37 loss to Lubbock Christian in a rematch of the Wildcats' first-ever NCAA Division II Elite Eight game from last March. The Chaps are the defending national champions and were ranked No. 1 in both national polls to start the season.

THREE-PEAT

With a 71-54 win at Molloy on Feb. 24, Daemen clinched its third consecutive East Coast Conference regular season title. Including finishing as co-champions with St. Thomas Aquinas in 2020, Daemen is now the first team in ECC history to win the regular season title in three consecutive seasons since University of New Haven (now in NE-10) did from 2006-08. New Haven also won the title in 2004 as part of winning four times in a five-year span. Based on records dating back to 1991, The College of St. Rose (now in NE-10) still holds the league record for most consecutive ECC regular season banners (6) as they won in each year from 1995 to 2000 – the last four accomplished with undefeated records.

STREAKS SNAPPED

With their 61-53 loss versus St. Thomas Aquinas on Feb. 18, Daemen saw many streaks come to a close. Their 13-game winning streak heading into Friday was the longest among all NCAA Division II East Region teams. The loss against the Spartans also ended a stretch where the Wildcats recorded 22 consecutive regular season ECC contests, dating back to the start of their first-ever unbeaten conference season in program history in 2020-21. Their last regular season ECC loss came in a 47-43 loss to the former NY Tech on March 1, 2020. The Wildcats were even more dominant in regular season ECC games at Lumsden Gymnasium as their loss against the Spartans was their first on Main Street since a 76-62 loss versus Roberts Wesleyan on Feb. 9, 2018 (1,470 days.) Daemen's regular season conference winning streak at home ended at 31 straight games.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSIONS

After averaging 59.8 points in their first five games of the season, the Wildcats broke out offensively with three consecutive wins in conference play in December. It started Dec. 8 when they canned 18 three-pointers on 32 attempts (.563 shooting %) during an 83-46 romp over Roberts Wesleyan in what was the teams' first meeting since last season's East Regional finals. Sydney Hvizdzak (5-8, 15 points), Tiara Filbert (4-4, 16 points), Katie Titus (4-5, 16 points) and Kaytlyn Matz (3-7, 9 points) all made multiple three-pointers in the win. Then, on Dec. 12, the Wildcats erupted again during a 97-83 win over Bridgeport. It marked their first game with 95+ points since a 96-84 win over LIU Post on Jan. 25, 2017. Titus scored a career-high 38 points on 15-of-22 shooting, matching the highest individual scoring effort of the program's NCAA Division II era. Filbert, who shares the record, chipped in 20 points and nine rebounds. Then, on Dec. 17, the Wildcats made timely shots down the stretch in a 76-59 victory over Staten Island, the first meeting in program history. Titus recorded her sixth double-double of the season (26 points, 16 rebounds) as one of four Wildcat players to finish in double-figure scoring. Kaytlyn Matz set new career-highs in made three-point field goals (5) and attempts (11) as part of a 16-point night plus seven rebounds, three assists and two blocks. Mickayla Ivy added 10 points and seven rebounds and Autumn Buchsenschutz scored eight of her 11 points in the second half alone, including 3-of-4 shooting from beyond the arc.

BACK IN ACTION

After a 28-day absence due to the NCAA-mandated holiday break and the postponement of four consecutive games related to COVID-19 protocols, Daemen returned to the hardwood with a 61-58 victory over Molloy on Jan. 14 at Lumsden Gymnasium. The Lions scored 11 straight points to fuel a 17-6 lead at the end of the first quarter. Daemen found its shooting rhythm in the second quarter and cut the deficit to as much as four points (26-22.) Molloy went into the break with a 28-23 lead. By scoring the final seven points of the third and another 10 unanswered points at the start of the fourth, the Wildcats scored a total of 17 unanswered points to take a 54-47 lead. A Daemen scoring drought gave the Lions a chance to make this a one-possession game (54-51) with just over three minutes to play. Molloy converted two free-throws with 1:34 left to make the score 55-53 Daemen, which remained the score until Filbert's two free-throws with 15 seconds left. Molloy drained a three-pointer with three seconds left to make this a one-point game (59-58), but Daemen again converted two free throws to close out the scoring. Tiara Filbert finished with a team-high 20 points in the victory.

MORE SUCCESS AT LUMSDEN

On Jan. 16, Daemen extended their winning ways with an 80-43 victory over Queens College to record their 28th consecutive regular season victory in ECC play at Lumsden Gymnasium, dating back to the start of the 2017-18 season. Daemen held a 14-2 lead halfway through the first quarter and took a 24-4 lead into the second quarter. The lead ballooned to 32 points, 41-9, late in the second quarter and the hosts took a 48-15 lead into intermission before maintaining a comfortable lead throughout the second half. Freshman Sydney Hvizzzak connected on 4-of-8 three-pointers and scored a season-high 18 points for the Wildcats in just 18 minutes of action off the bench while senior Katie Titus added 13 points and six rebounds. Daemen converted 10 three-point shots, the fourth time in a five-game stretch that the Wildcats made 10 or more in a game. Daemen also registered 23 assists, the third time in a five-game stretch where the blue-and-white handed out 20 or more assists in a game (season-high 25 vs. Roberts Wesleyan on 12/9/21).

THEY CAME, THEY SAW, THEY CONQUERED

Behind a pair of double-figure scorers – 21 points from senior Katie Titus and 11 points from redshirt senior Tiara Filbert – and quality contributions from fellow veteran play-makers, the regionally-ranked Wildcats recorded a sixth consecutive win and their eighth in their last 10 contests following a 64-48 victory against St. Thomas Aquinas on Jan. 21 in an East Coast Conference matchup held at Aquinas Hall. Sophomore guard Kaytlyn Matz, junior forward Marina Maerkl and sophomore guard Alahna Paige added nine points apiece in the victory. Matz also had a team-high four assists and tied with Paige for the team lead in rebounds (8.) In addition to finishing in double-figure scoring for the seventh straight contest (10th time this season), Titus recorded a season-high four blocks and went a perfect 6-of-6 at the free-throw line. The victory marked just the second time Daemen defeated STAC at Aquinas Hall in program history. The first victory came in a 79-73 overtime thriller on February 11, 2016.

BATTLE OF THE UNBEATENS

On Jan. 23, Daemen went down to Dobbs Ferry to face fellow ECC unbeaten Mercy and returned to Main Street with a 55-51 win and first place in the conference standings. The Wildcats turned an early 14-2 deficit into a 28-6 run over the final 14:10 of the first half. Redshirt senior Tiara Filbert (Batavia, N.Y.) led the Wildcats offensively by scoring 10 of her game-high 18 points in the first half alone and tied her season-high in assists (6) for the third time this season. As a result, Filbert passed Joanna Daugenti '05 for 13th place in career scoring. This marked the second time this season where Daemen won a contest after scoring less than 60 points (Angelo State, Nov. 19, 2021.) This is also the 13th time Daemen has accomplished this feat since the Jeneper Banker era began in the 2016-17 campaign. The Wildcats have now won 12 straight in the series and nine of the last 10 meetings in Victory Hall. Daemen leads the all-time series, 15-2.

On Feb. 2, Daemen came away with a late 73-68 win at Roberts Wesleyan for a 20th consecutive regular season conference victory dating back to the start of last season. The Redhawks held a 64-58 lead with just over four minutes left. That's when redshirt senior Tiara Filbert and fellow veterans Katie Titus and Mickayla Ivy took over and led the Wildcats on an 11-2 run. Ivy sparked the run with back-to-back buckets and her jumper with 1:30 left capped the run and gave the visitors a 69-66 lead. Filbert hit a pull up three-pointer during the rally, while Titus gave the Wildcats the lead for good (67-66) with 2:01 left. Filbert helped seal the deal with four free-throws – all within the last 20 seconds of the contest. Filbert totaled a season-high 22 points, grabbed nine rebounds and dished out a season-high seven assists. Titus scored 16 points and has now scored in double figures in 12 straight games.
