After a defensive first half holding both teams at bay, Gannon came out of the break exploding for 40 points leading to the 50-40 win over Indiana. The win marked the first time Gannon defeated a nationally ranked opponent since 2015. IUP was ranked No. 7 at the time.

CLEVE WRIGHT

HEAD COACH | 13TH SEASON

RECORD AT GANNON - 262-106, 12 YEARS

CAREER RECORD - 297-193, 15 YEARS

CHARTING WRIGHT'S PATH

Gannon University	Head Coach	2002-2013, 2019-Pr.
Eastern Illinois	Associate Head Coach	2017-19
Miami (Ohio)	Head Coach	2013-17
Northwestern	Assistant Coach	1999-02
Butler	Assistant Coach	1997-98
Duke	Assistant Coach	1992-93
Ball State	Graduate Assistant Coach	1990-92

Wright will enter his 12th season overall as Gannon's head women's basketball coach in 2019-20, the first season of his second stint in Erie.

A coaching veteran of nearly three decades at both the NCAA Division I and II levels, Wright served as the Gannon women's basketball head coach from 2002-13, before serving as the head coach at NCAA Division I Miami (Ohio) from 2013-17 and as an associate head coach at NCAA Division I Eastern Illinois the last two seasons.

Wright departed Gannon in April 2013 as the school's all-time winningest basketball coach regardless of gender at the time. He produced a 232-100 career record in 11 seasons at Gannon, resulting in a .700 winning percentage. His victory total is 128 more than any other women's basketball coach in school history.

His overall record as a collegiate head coach is 297-193 across 15 seasons.

During his first tenure, Wright took the Gannon women's basketball program to heights unseen in school history. Prior to his arrival, Gannon had qualified for the NCAA Tournament four times in 28 seasons and had won only one NCAA postseason game during those trips. During Wright's tenure, the Lady Knights played in five NCAA Tournaments and won 11 NCAA postseason contests.

The run included a trip to the NCAA Division II national semifinals in 2010 and NCAA Division II Elite Eight in 2013. Individually, Gannon student-athletes earned All-America honors six times and all-conference accolades 28 times under Wright.

He was named NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year and Atlantic Region Coach of the Year by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) in 2010. A three-time conference coach of the year, Wright was named Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) Western Division Coach of the Year in 2010 and 2013, also earning the honor from the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) in 2007.

Gannon's results in the classroom were also impressive. In addition to producing the best team grade point average in the PSAC during the 2011-12 season, Gannon was among the nation's top 25 in team GPA during seven of his final eight years. The run included a No. 12 ranking in 2008-09 (3.497) and 2009-10 (3.491). In 2006-07, the Lady Knights achieved their highest national ranking ever, tabbed sixth with a 3.494 mark. The program was 14th in 2011-12 (3.526), ninth in 2007-08 (3.508), 21st in 2005-06 (3.343) and seventh in 2004-05 (3.487). In addition, Lady Knights earned conference all-academic honors 70 times during his last 10 seasons.

Wright not only established himself as one of Gannon's all-time best, but also as one of the top head coaches in NCAA Division II. Prior to accepting the head coaching position at Miami (Ohio), he ranked 21st among active Division II coaches and first among PSAC coaches in career winning percentage.

In 2009-10, Wright produced the most successful season in the history of the women's basketball program. The Lady Knights advanced to the NCAA Division II Final Four for the first time in school history. The squad broke the NCAA Division II record at the time for most victories (37) in a season and still holds the record for most consecutive wins (37) in a single season.

Wright has 33 years of coaching experience, including three seasons (1999-02) as the top assistant at Division I Northwestern in Evanston, Illinois, a member of the Big 10 Conference. From 1997-99, he was an assistant coach in the Horizon League at Division I Butler University.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Ball State from 1990-92, where he also received a master of arts degree in athletics administration. Prior to his coaching stint at Southwestern High School, he served as an assistant at Duke (1992-93) before joining Olkowski at Butler University.

Wright received a bachelor of arts degree in 1989 from Berea College in Berea, Kentucky.
