JUMP BALL

The nationally-ranked Daemen Wildcats ride a seven-game winning streak into their first true road game of the season this Saturday as they trek to The City of Brotherly Love to face the U. Sciences Devils. Four of the Wildcats' recent wins have been by six points or less as they've made plays down the stretch in each. That was the case last Saturday when the Wildcats erased a seven-point deficit with under eight minutes to play in an 83-81 win over Wilmington at KeyBank Center. Andrew Sischo continues to lead the way as he's topped 20 points in seven of eight games this season, and has posted seven double-doubles. Daemen's winning streak has vaulted them into the top-15 of both national polls for Division II. They'll be facing U. Sciences for the first time since the 1999-2000 season when the school was referred to as Philadelphia Pharmacy. It also marks Daemen's first game in Philadelphia since a 68-59 loss to Holy Family on Nov. 22, 2014. The Wildcats are looking to snap a three-game slide in games played in the state of Pennsylvania. Their last win in The Keystone State came Nov. 23, 2016 at Edinboro (90-79).

ECC 30TH ANNIVERSARY

The East Coast Conference is celebrating 30 years as an NCAA Division II conference throughout the 2019-20 season.

"It is my honor to be Commissioner as the East Coast Conference, and before that the New York Collegiate Athletic Conference, celebrates its 30th year as an NCAA Division II athletic association," said ECC Commissioner, Dr. Robert Dranoff. "This is an athletic conference that can truly boast about success in the classroom, on the playing field, and in the community. We are proud of all the student-athletes, coaches, and administrators who have made their mark in so many ways, contributing to their institutions and to the ECC and NCAA."

The ECC was formed during the 1989-90 season under its former name, the New York Collegiate Athletic Conference. The league started with 10-members competing in nine sports (men's basketball, baseball, softball, men's soccer, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's cross country, and men's golf).

The ECC currently has 10 member institutions in New York, Connecticut, and Washington, D.C. Four charter members, Mercy College, Molloy College, New York Tech, and Queens College, have competed in the conference throughout its 30 years. In all, 20 institutions have called the ECC home since its inception.

Rebranded as the East Coast Conference before the 2006-2007 season, the league has grown to currently offer 19 championship sports, 10 of which have access to automatic bids into the NCAA Championship. The ECC has been home to 23 Division II National Championship teams and one individual National Championship, as well.

MIKE MACDONALD

HEAD COACH • SIXTH SEASON • ST. BONAVENTURE, '88

The 2019-20 season will mark Mike MacDonald's sixth year as the Head Men's Basketball Coach at Daemen College. All he's done over the last half-decade is lead the Wildcats to the second-most wins among all Division II programs in New York State. Since being introduced as the sixth head coach in the modern history of the program on September 16, 2014, MacDonald has guided the Wildcats to a 105-43 overall record, wins in nearly 75 percent of their conference games (70-24 record) and five top-three finishes in the East Coast Conference standings.

MacDonald holds more than 30 years of collegiate coaching experience, including the last 22 as a head coach. In that time, he's compiled a record of 361-269 (.573 winning percentage) as a head coach, while also graduating 83 of the 86 seniors he has ever coached.

The 2018-19 season was the team's finest since transitioning to the NCAA Division II level. MacDonald led the Wildcats to a 24-6 record and the program's second ECC regular-season title. The Wildcats spent a combined 16 weeks ranked in the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and Division II Sports Information Directors of America (D2SIDA) top-25 national polls, and earned their first-ever NCAA tournament berth.

MacDonald recorded milestones and received several accolades along the way in 2018-19. His 350th career win came in dramatic fashion on January 18 as junior guard Breon Harris scored five points in the final 21 seconds to lift the Wildcats past Mercy 75-74. His 100th win at Daemen came February 10, placing MacDonald among an elite fraternity of coaches who have achieved at least 100 wins while coaching in each of the NCAA's three divisions. That achievement propelled him to HoopDirt.com Division II Coach of the Week honors, and he went on to be named the ECC Coach of the Year, the NABC District Coach of the Year and the Basketball Coaches Association of New York (BCANY) Division II Coach of the Year.

The Wildcat faithful become familiar with MacDonald's fiery style during the 2014-15 season as the veteran mentor guided Daemen to its fourth straight 20-win season, including a 13-7 mark in the East Coast Conference, good for a third-place finish in the final league standings. The fireworks got started before the season even officially began as MacDonald led the Wildcats to an 83-81 win in overtime over Canisius College in an exhibition game on November 11, 2014 at the Koessler Athletic Center. It was Daemen's first-ever victory against an NCAA Division I opponent.

MacDonald's official Daemen debut came just days later as his Wildcats walloped Concordia College (N.Y.), 88-50, in the opening round of the ECC-CACC Challenge before a raucous home crowd at Lumsden Gymnasium. MacDonald would go on to lead the team to wins in his first nine home games, extending the program's NCAA Division II-best home-court winning streak to 44 consecutive before a buzzer-beating three-pointer in overtime by eventual ECC Player of the Year Darian Hooker lifted N.Y. Institute of Technology past Daemen (85-84) to snap the streak on January 24, 2015.

Despite losing two starters to season-ending injuries, including first-team All-ECC selection Torrence Dyck, MacDonald helped the Wildcats advance to the postseason. With Daemen's teams still ineligible for ECC and/or NCAA Division II postseason, Daemen elected to partake in the United States Collegiate Athletic Association (USCAA) Division I National Championships in Uniontown, Pa., entering the tournament as the No. 1 overall seed. While there, MacDonald guided Daemen to wins over No. 8 Indiana-South Bend (69-63), No. 4 Concordia College (Ala.) (68-63) and No. 3 Rochester College (Mich.) (77-53) to capture the program's first USCAA national title, riding USCAA Division I Player of the Year and National Championships MVP Gerald Beverly to the tourney crown.

At the conclusion of the 2014-15 season, MacDonald was named the BCANY Division II Coach of the Year.

The 2015-16 season marked Daemen's first as a full-fledged NCAA Division II member, and it presented its share of challenges. Starting guards Supreme Hannah and Nick Petrucelli were lost to season-ending injuries, but that didn't stop MacDonald from leading the team to new and unprecedented heights. After opening the season with just three wins in their first eight outings, the Wildcats hit their stride after the calendar turned to January, scoring 15 wins in the final 19 games of the regular season.

A 94-81 win over Mercy on January 9 jump-started what turned out to be a nine-game winning streak. Included in the string was a miraculous 98-96 win over Roberts Wesleyan on January 12. Dyck's driving layup with four seconds remaining gave Daemen the lead after erasing a 22-point deficit over the final six minutes of the contest.

Daemen's 14-6 league record was good for a second-place finish in the final regular season standings, earning them the No. 2 seed and a bye into the semifinal round of the ECC Tournament which would mark the program's first-ever postseason berth at the NCAA Division II level. Taking on sixth-seeded Mercy in the semis, Daemen came through with a 103-102 win in overtime, advancing to the tournament finals. There, the Wildcats' season came to an end against top-seeded St. Thomas Aquinas.

2019-20 DAEMEN MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

The 2016-17 season saw MacDonald lead the Wildcats to 5-0 start out of the gates, including the veteran coach's 300th career win which came at Edinboro University (90-79) on November 23.

MacDonald's team would rebound from a four-game slide to rattle off 11 wins in 13 outings between mid-December and early-February. Included in the stretch was a 67-64 win over No. 23 St. Thomas Aquinas on January 4 - the Wildcats' first-ever victory against a ranked opponent at the NCAA Division II level. The Wildcats would go on to close the regular season at 18-8 overall and 12-6 in ECC play; the team's 12 league wins placed them fourth in the final ECC regular season standings.

Making their second straight ECC Tournament appearance, MacDonald led the Wildcats to a 73-71 win over fifth-seeded District of Columbia in the opening round. The win pushed the Wildcats' home record to 14-2 on the season, tying the team record for home wins in a season. The 2016-17 campaign came to an end in the semifinal round of the tournament where top-seeded St. Thomas Aquinas emerged victorious.

Before arriving at Daemen, MacDonald spent eight years leading the men's basketball team at Medaille College (2006-14) where he transformed the program into a regional contender at the NCAA Division III level. Inheriting a program that went 4-46 in the two years prior to his arrival, MacDonald's version of the Mavericks averaged 18 wins per season, while advancing to the postseason six times.

Medaille's emergence as a Division III power in the Northeast was cemented in MacDonald's final five seasons there, as he led the Mavericks to more wins (101) than any other Division III team in New York State, while ranking 17th nationally in wins during the same time frame.

MacDonald was named the Allegheny Mountain Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year on four occasions (2006-07, 2008-09, 2009-10, 2011-12). He left Medaille as the school's all-time leader in wins (148) and winning percentage (.670).

Prior to his stint at Medaille, MacDonald served as the head coach at Canisius College from 1997-2006, guiding the Golden Griffins to 108 wins which ranks him third in program history for coaching victories. While there, he was one of only five coaches in that program's storied history to orchestrate a 20-win season, and was named the 2000-01 BCANY Division I Co-Coach of the Year.

Before being elevated to the head coaching post at Canisius, MacDonald had been the Golden Griffins' top assistant coach under John Beilein, now the head coach of the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers. In that role, MacDonald helped Canisius reach the 1996 NCAA Tournament in addition to two National Invitational Tournament appearances.

In addition to his coaching accomplishments, MacDonald brings a strong connection to the local community. His teams have been active with a number of community organizations in the greater Buffalo community and beyond, including the Boys and Girls Clubs of Buffalo, Blessed Sacrament Athletic Club and Coaches vs. Cancer. MacDonald and several of his players have also worked with the Drug Enforcement Administration and Mayor Byron Brown's office on the "Game Changers" program which provides academic and athletic opportunities for inner-city youths during the summer months.

A 1988 graduate of Saint Bonaventure University, MacDonald resides in Amherst with his wife Maura (nee Heary). The couple has raised four children - Matthew, Patrick, Nicholas and Mark. Matthew served as team captain during his collegiate career at the University of Pennsylvania and is now a player development assistant with the Brooklyn Nets. Patrick was a Division III All-American while playing at the State University of New York Maritime College, and is now enlisted in the United States Navy. Nicholas is a freshman on the basketball team at Niagara University.

WHAT A RIDE

The 2018-19 season was one for the record books at Daemen as the Wildcats captured their second East Coast Conference regular season title, sat atop the regional rankings for much of the campaign, ascended into the top-25 national polls for the first time as an NCAA Division II member and garnered the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament bid. The Wildcats rattled off wins in 11 of their first 12 games, including a 78-72 defeat of previously unbeaten St. Anselm who came into the Jan. 2 contest ranked No. 4 in both Division II national polls. Daemen embarked on a 10-game winning streak beginning in mid-January, a stretch that vaulted them to the top of the regional poll and as high as No. 10 (D2SIDA) and No. 13 (NABC) in the top-25 national polls. It marked the Wildcats' longest winning streak since the 2013-14 season when they won 14 consecutive games. The Wildcats wrapped up the ECC regular season title with a 93-71 defeat of Bridgeport on March 3. They entered the ECC Championship tournament as the No. 1 seed, but were upset by fourth-seeded Bridgeport in game played at UB's Hubbell Gymnasium. Despite the conference tournament loss, Daemen was awarded an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament, earning the No. 5 seed to the East Region Championship. They made their NCAA tourney debut March 16, but saw their season come to an end with a 72-67 loss to fourth-seeded New Haven. The team's 24 wins this season were the most since their transition to NCAA Division II.

BECOMING THE NORM

Daemen's 108-63 win over LIU Post last Feb. 15 was their 20th of the 2018-19 season. It marked Daemen's sixth 20-win campaign in the last eight seasons. Daemen has not won less than 19 games in a season since the 2010-11 campaign. Finishing the year at 24-6, it marked the program's most in a season since going 27-6 during the 2012-13 campaign, a year before the Wildcats began play as members of the East Coast Conference.

NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

For the first time as a member of NCAA Division II, Daemen opened the season as a nationally-ranked team. The Wildcats were ranked in both preseason national polls for Division II (NABC poll No. 22; D2SIDA poll No. 18). The Wildcats have since risen to No. 13 in the NABC poll and No. 8 in the D2SIDA poll out earlier this week, marking their highest ascent in both polls. Daemen has been ranked in 10 successive NABC polls, and 12 of the last 13 D2SIDA polls dating back to last January. The Wildcats are also ranked No. 1 in the D2SIDA East Region media poll this week, a spot they've laid claim to in nine of the last 10 regional media polls dating back to last January.

GREAT ECC-XPECTATIONS

For the first time since joining the East Coast Conference, the league's coaches have predicted a first-place finish for Daemen. The Wildcats sit atop the 2019-20 ECC preseason poll which was released in late October. Daemen amassed 80 total points in the poll, grabbing eight of nine first-place votes. St. Thomas Aquinas College picked up the remaining first-place vote, finishing with 72 points in the poll to sit at No. 2. The University of Bridgeport (64 points) and defending ECC tournament champion Molloy College (53 points) round out the top four teams. Daemen holds an 87-27 all-time record in ECC contests dating back to the 2013-14 season. Only St. Thomas Aquinas (89-24) holds more wins in ECC games during that time frame. The Wildcats have finished third or better in all six seasons since joining the league.

YOU CAN COME HOME AGAIN

Daemen's game at KeyBank Center was a return 14 years in the making for Daemen head coach Mike MacDonald. The longtime bench boss coached in more than 40 games at the downtown arena from 1996-2005 while working at Canisius (including stints as an assistant and head coach). It marked his first game coached in the building since a 79-59 loss to Rider in the 2005 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Tournament (Mar. 5, 2005). MacDonald is the all-time leader for coaching wins at KeyBank Center. The Daemen win there over Wilmington extended his career record to 18-11 in the building, and was his first victory there since a 62-60 triumph over Marist on March 4, 2005.

TUNE-UPS

In preparation for the 2019-20 regular season, Daemen played a trio of exhibition contests, including two against highly-touted Division I programs Buffalo and Syracuse. Despite having just seven days of practice under their belt, Daemen opened the brief exhibition season with a 111-73 loss against a Buffalo team that spent the majority of the 2018-19 season ranked among the top-25 teams in the country, finishing the year with a 32-4 overall record and a trip to the second round of the NCAA tournament. Less than 48 hours later the Wildcats made their first-ever appearance at the iconic Carrier Dome on the campus of SU, falling to the Orange and legendary head coach Jim Boeheim 90-71. It left as a decent a feeling as one can have following a 19-point defeat at the Wildcats played SU even (43-43) over the final 20 minutes. The exhibition slate wrapped up on Oct. 29 with Daemen blasting Mohawk (116-54) out of the Ontario Colleges Athletic Association. Andrew Sischo led the Wildcats by averaging 18.3 points and 10.3 rebounds over the three contests. He put up 28 points and 12 rebounds against Buffalo, numbers that no player has achieved against the Bulls in the last three seasons, and followed up with another double-double (15 points, 12 rebounds) at Syracuse. Breon Harris netted a team-high 23 points at the Carrier Dome, and finished the exhibition slate averaging 10.7 points per game. Newcomer Joey Wallace also made his presence felt, averaging 10.0 points, 4.0 rebounds and 3.3 assists per game.

SMALL COLLEGE BASKETBALL NATIONAL HALL OF FAME CLASSIC

Daemen opened the 2019-20 season in prestigious fashion as they were selected to take part in the Small College Basketball National Hall of Fame Classic held at the St. Joseph (Mo.) Civic Arena. In a battle of nationally-ranked teams, Daemen fell 85-65 in their season opener against No. 1 Northwest Missouri State. The Bearcats, who have won two of the last three national titles, extended their winning streak to 39 games, despite being outscored (55-54) over the middle 30 minutes of the contest. Daemen's Andrew Sisco impressed against the highly-touted Bearcats as he recorded the 26th double-double of his career, finishing with 24 points and 15 rebounds. The Wildcats regrouped for a come-from-behind win the following night against Missouri Western State, the quasi-tournament host playing less than 10 miles from their campus. A game-closing 15-6 run over the final 5:29 lifted the Wildcats past the Griffons. Newcomer Kyle Harris netted the go-ahead bucket at the 1:41 mark, part of his 11-point outing off the bench.

ECC-CACC CHALLENGE DOMINANCE

Daemen continued its winning ways at the ECC-CACC Challenge, earning home victories over Felician (95-80) on Nov. 8, and Nyack (80-74) on Nov. 9. Both games featured come-from-behind efforts. The Wildcats erased a 17-point first-half deficit in the win over Felician. After trailing by 11 at halftime, Daemen erupted for 56 second-half points, outscoring the Golden Falcons by 26 in the period. Andrew Sischo (31 points, 19 rebounds) scored 22 second-half points to lead the surge. Sischo was at it again vs. Nyack, finishing with 34 points and 17 boards en route to tournament MVP honors. The Wildcats led for most of the game, but found themselves trailing by three late in the second half. An old-fashioned three-point play by Sischo sparked a decisive 11-2 run down the stretch that included back-to-back trifectas by Jay Sarkis. Sischo, an ECC-CACC Challenge all-tournament team selection for the third straight year, was joined on the all-tournament team by Sarkis and senior guard Breon Harris who collected his first career double-double (11 points, 11 rebounds) in the win over Nyack.

HURST CURSE DASHED

Daemen exorcised some demons with a 67-65 defeat of Mercyhurst on Nov. 14. It marked the Wildcats' first win over Lakers since 2013, and just their second in the series overall. Andrew Sischo produced a double-double (22 points, 11 rebounds) and Joey Wallace put up 18 points, five boards, three assists and two steals to lead the way. The Wildcats and Lakers have met in seven successive seasons with five of those contests being decided by six points or less.

TOPPLING THE TOPPLERS

Daemen posted a wire-to-wire 98-83 win over nationally-ranked West Liberty on Nov. 16. The Hilltoppers came into the game ranked in the top-five of both national polls for Division II (No. 4 NABC; No. 3 D2SIDA), and have routinely been among the nation's highest scoring teams, including in 2018-19 when they ranked first in scoring (100.9 ppg). The Hilltoppers came in averaging 130.5 points per game following two lopsided wins over Mansfield and Shaw, but Daemen was the aggressor from the get-go and built an 18-point advantage late in the first half. West Liberty would cut the deficit to seven points several times in the second half, but Daemen charged back and eventually cruised to the 15-point win. Andrew Sischo was dominant inside (29 points on 12-of-13 shooting, 18 rebounds), and the Wildcats got additional scoring from Joey Wallace (19 points), Breon Harris (17), Kyle Harris (11) and Jeff Redband (10).

DOWNTOWN DEBUT

Daemen's first-ever game at KeyBank Center in downtown Buffalo was a successful one on Nov. 23 as the Wildcats rallied for an 83-81 win over upset-minded Wilmington. After opening up an early nine-point lead, the tables turned and Daemen trailed by as many as seven points in the second half. Wilmington led for more than 22 minutes in the game, but a deep three-pointer by Breon Harris with 32 seconds remaining put Daemen ahead. Harris came up with a steal on Wilmington's final possession to help seal the deal. He finished with a season-high 21 points, and Andrew Sischo tossed in 24 points and eight rebounds as well. Joey Wallace keyed the comeback by shooting 10-for-11 from the free throw line in the second half. The game was played as a part of a doubleheader with Big 4 rivals Canisius and St. Bonaventure taking the floor afterwards. It marked the first doubleheader at Buffalo's largest indoor sporting venue involving local teams since 2015. The 19,000-seat arena has been the site of the NCAA Division I men's basketball tournament six times since its opening in 1996.

U. SCIENCES SCOUTING REPORT

U. Sciences is a member of the Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference, and the Devils are led by veteran head coach David Pauley. Now in his 38th season with the program overall, Pauley has led the Devils to a 261-272 overall record since becoming head coach in 2000. The Devils have qualified for the CACC tournament 15 times during Pauley's tenure, and they've made one NCAA tournament berth (2015). The Devils posted an 11-17 overall record and an 8-11 mark in CACC play last season. They return 10 players, including three starters, from their 2018-19 team, and they've been picked tied for fourth in the CACC South Division preseason poll. Junior guard Paddy Casey headlines the U. Sciences returners after averaging 12.9 points (second on team) and a team-high 4.5 assists per game last season. The Devils have opened the season with two wins in their first five games. All three of their losses have come against East Coast Conference teams: 70-52 vs. St. Thomas Aquinas; 65-64 vs. District of Columbia; 70-56 vs. Bridgeport. Freshman forward Connor Murphy has made an immediate impact by leading the team in scoring (14.8 ppg) and rebounding (13.6 rpg). Murphy has posted four straight double-doubles, including a 20-point, 15-rebound performance in the loss to Bridgeport last Saturday. He ranks third in overall rebounding and first in defensive rebounding (10.0 def rpg) among the national leaders for Division II. Sophomore guard Sean Simon leads the team with 17 three-point field goals, and is averaging 13.2 points while coming off the bench in all five games thus far. Redshirt-sophomore guard Jordan White is averaging 13.0 points, and Casey is chipping in 9.6 points per contest.

Previous Meetings

C-A-C-C YOU LATER

Since joining the ECC in 2013, Daemen has been dominant in games against regional foes from the Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference. The Wildcats are 16-3 against CACC opponents in the span, including a 15-2 mark since head coach Mike MacDonald took control in 2014. That includes three wins already this season as Daemen downed Felician and Nyack as part of the ECC-CACC Challenge, and Wilmington on Nov. 23 at KeyBank Center. Daemen brings a 12-game winning streak against CACC teams into Saturday's game vs. Wilmington. The Wildcats' last loss to a CACC team came Nov. 14, 2015 against Holy Family.

CORE FOUR

Continuity has played a large role in Daemen's success over the last several seasons as the group of Andrew Sischo, Jeff Redband, Breon Harris and Jay Sarkis have been constants in the Wildcats' starting lineup. Since Dec. 31, 2017 (when Harris was inserted into the starting lineup for the first time), all four players have been in Daemen's starting lineup 41 out of possible 56 games. Daemen is 33-8 in those contests. The Wildcats are also 42-9 when at least three of the four are in the starting lineup.

COMEBACK KIDS

MAN IN THE MIDDLE

Redshirt-junior center Andrew Sischo headlines Daemen's returning players after earning East Coast Conference and Division II Conference Commissioner's Association East Region Player of the Year honors in 2018-19. A two-time first-team All-ECC selection, Sischo has been downright dominant in his career for the Wildcats. He has set new team benchmarks for points scored by a freshman (462) and sophomore (585), and is already one of only 10 players in program history with 1,000 points and 500 rebounds. Sischo recorded 17 double-doubles last season, ranking first among all ECC players and sixth nationally, while also becoming just the sixth player in team history to average a double-double (20.9 ppg, 10.1 rpg) for an entire season. In late October he was named the ECC Preseason Player of the Year, marking the second straight season that he's earned the accolade, and he's picked up right where he left off last season. Through eight games this year, Sischo is averaging monster numbers (25.3 ppg, 13.9 rpg, 1.8 bpg, 68.5% FG). He opened the season by posting seven straight double-doubles, and was named to the SCB National Hall of Fame Classic all-tournament team, MVP of the ECC-CACC Challenge, the ECC Defensive Player of the Week, a two-time ECC Player of the Week and a two-time U.S. Basketball Writers Association Men's Division II National Player of the Week.

THREE-DICULOUS SHOOTING

Over the course of his career, forward Jeff Redband has established himself as one of the preeminent three-point shooters in the ECC, as well as among Daemen's all-time leaders. Redband is the first Daemen player with 60 or more three-pointers in three straight seasons since Brian Montanaro did so four straight times from 2002-06. A two-time All-ECC pick, including a second-team selection last season, Redband has appeared in all 96 games since the start of the 2016-17 season, making 93 starts and averaging 11.4 points and 4.6 rebounds per game. He ranks fourth in team history with 236 three-point field goals (one shy of Kharmen Wingard for third place), and he's made at least one trifecta in 39 of the last 42 games. Redband leads the team with 20 three-point field goals this season, and his producing 10.3 points per game.

BREAKOUT BREON

Senior guard Breon Harris was inserted into the starting lineup midway through the 2017-18 season, and went on to help Daemen wins in 41 of their next 49 contests (through the end of the 2018-19 season). He's been a third-team All-ECC selection in each of the last two seasons, and has also earned ECC Championships all-tournament team honors twice in his career. Harris swiped 70 steals as a sophomore, the third-highest single-season total in team history and making him the first player with at least 70 since Russell John totaled 73 in 1990-91. He added 53 steals to his career total last season, becoming just the fifth player to lead the Wildcats in steals at least twice, and the first player with 50+ steals in consecutive seasons since Mark Coppola in 2011-12 and 2012-13. He was named to the ECC-CACC Challenge all-tournament team for the second straight year after averaging 14.5 points, 9.0 rebounds and 6.5 assists in Daemen wins over Felician and Nyack. Those contributions included the first double-double of his career, as he totaled 11 points and a career-high 11 boards vs. Nyack. He's producing 12.1 points per game and leads the team in assists (21) and steals (13) this season.

SHINING STAR-KIS

Redshirt-senior guard Jay Sarkis has been a fixture in the Daemen lineup since arriving on campus in 2015. Sarkis has appeared in 88 of a possible 97 games (excluding a redshirt season in 2016-17), while making 82 starts. He's recorded at least one three-pointer in 72 games, totaling 153 triples in his career. He's just the eighth player in program history with at least 150 three-point field goals. Sarkis contributed 8.2 points and a team-best 3.1 assists per game in 2018-19. His finest season came a year earlier when he put up career-highs in points (372), assists (106) and rebounds (86).

2019-20 DAEMEN MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

NOV. 26 - WILDCATS MOVE UP IN BOTH NATIONAL POLLS

AMHERST, N.Y. - The Daemen College men's basketball team has moved up in both national polls for the second straight week. Daemen comes in at No. 13 in the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) top-25 poll (up from No. 17 last week), and No. 8 in the Division II Sports Information Directors of America (D2SIDA) national media poll (up from No. 10 last week) which were both released today.

The rankings represent high-water marks for Daemen in each poll. Daemen had never been ranked higher than No. 10 in the D2SIDA poll prior to today, and their No. 13 ranking matches their highest ascent in the NABC poll which was last achieved on Feb. 19, 2019. Daemen has now been ranked in 12 of the last 13 D2SIDA polls, and 10 consecutive NABC polls.

The Wildcats are off to a 7-1 start this season. Their lone loss came back on November 1 against defending national champion Northwest Missouri State University, winners of 44 straight games and again ranked atop both polls this week. The Wildcats have rattled off seven straight wins since then, including six that have featured second-half comebacks. Head coach Mike MacDonald saw his team rally from an eight-point deficit with under seven minutes to play for an 89-79 defeat of upstate rival Le Moyne College last Tuesday (Nov. 19). They then rallied from a six-point hole with under five minutes to play in an 83-81 win over Wilmington University on Saturday (Nov. 23) in Daemen's first-ever game at KeyBank Center in downtown Buffalo.

The early season run has featured six home wins. Daemen has won 14 straight and 29 of their last 31 home games. The Wildcats are also unbeaten in 15 straight home non-conference games.

Redshirt-junior Andrew Sischo (Guilderland, N.Y.) continues to lead the way by averaging 25.3 points and 13.9 rebounds per game. The 6-foot-9 center has posted seven double-doubles this season, and ranks 11th in scoring and second in rebounding among the national leaders for Division II.

Breon Harris (Niagara Falls, N.Y.), Joey Wallace (Rochester, N.Y.) and Jeff Redband (Batavia, N.Y.) are also scoring in double figures for Daemen which is averaging 80.6 points per game as a team. All three players have been instrumental in recent games. Harris (12.1 ppg, team-high 21 assists) scored a season-high 21 points in the win over Wilmington. It was his go-ahead three-pointer and subsequent steal in the final 32 seconds that lifted Daemen to the victory. Wallace (12.0 ppg) shot 10-for-11 from the free throw line in the second half vs. Wilmington, and has scored 17 points or more in three of the last four games. Redband (10.3 ppg) has a team-high 20 three-pointers, and his back-to-back jumpers keyed a game-closing 22-3 run in the win over Le Moyne.

Daemen returns to action this Saturday, Nov. 30 with their first true road game of the season. The Wildcats will visit University of the Sciences for a 3 p.m. tip-off at Bobby Morgan Arena in Philadelphia.
