NCAA ELITE EIGHT TICKETS

Tickets for NCAA Division II Women's Volleyball Championship Elite Eight can be purchased online. Ticket prices range and additional service fees will be included. Advanced ticket purchase is strongly recommended, however on-site ticket purchasing will be available. This is a cash-free event so all purchases must be made with an electronic payment.

UNCHARTED TERRITORY

Daemen makes its NCAA Division II Elite Eight debut as the No. 7 seed facing second-seeded Western Washington. The Elite Eight features the winners of each regional championship from across the country and is being held Dec. 9-11 at the Bob Martinez Athletics Center on the campus of the University of Tampa. A trip to the national semifinals is on the line. The DC-WWU winner will face the winning team from Thursday's first quarterfinal featuring third-seeded Washburn and sixth-seeded West Texas A&M.

STREAK STOPPERS

Daemen advanced to the Elite Eight by stunning top-seeded American International in four sets to win the East Region championship on Dec. 4, snapping the Yellow Jackets' 22-match winning streak in the process. The AIC streak ranked the second longest among all Division II teams before it was broken. Daemen also handed AIC just its 12th home loss in the last six seasons and snapped their 11-match home winning streak in the process. Daemen avenged a five-set loss to AIC from earlier this season, as well as their only prior regional championship opportunity when AIC knocked off the Wildcats in a five-set thriller at Lumsden Gymnasium in 2016.

ON A ROLL

Daemen has won 21 of their last 23 contests, including the last 12 in a row. It marks the Wildcats' longest winning streak since rattling off 15 consecutive victories during the 2016 season. It's also the third longest active streak among all NCAA Division II teams, trailing only Western Washington (19) and Tampa (18).

WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS... TIMES TWO

It was 12 up, 12 down in conference play for the Wildcats who secured the program's third ECC regular season title (2016, 2018, 2021). The Wildcats dropped only one set in conference play during the regular season while recording the first unbeaten conference season in program history. The Wildcats clinched the regular season title with a 3-0 defeat of Mercy on Nov. 6. The Wildcats then went on to win the ECC tournament championship with wins over fourth-seeded Molloy (3-0) and second-seeded Bridgeport (3-2). As the ECC tournament champion, the Wildcats earned an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament.

INSTANT CLASSICS

Daemen survived its stiffest challenge from an ECC opponent all season when they rallied from a 2-1 deficit in the final round of the ECC tournament to defeat Bridgeport in five sets. Sophomore middle blocker Vanessa Kuliga was named the Most Outstanding Player of the tournament after totaling 25 kills, nine blocks and a .360 hitting percentage in two matches. Kuliga posted 14 kills and a career-high eight blocks in the finals vs. Bridgeport. Sam Logan added 14 kills and 11 digs for her sixth double-double of the season. The Wildcats made the same rally in their NCAA tournament opener as they defeated seventh-seeded Bentley in five sets. Amelia Armstrong recorded a career-high 11 kills and Jasmine Brundage had the most digs (35) for any Daemen player during the program's NCAA Division II era. The Wildcats had lost nine consecutive five-set matches prior to their recent success.

CENTURY MARK

Daemen's regional semifinal defeat of Stonehill marked the 100th win in the career of head coach Stephanie Albano. She became only the second coach in program history to reach the century mark, joining Mark Parisi who led the program to a 151-178 record from 2005-14. Earlier this season, Albano passed Western New York coaching icon Sally Kus for second on the program's all-time wins list. Kus led the program to a 92-54 record from 1998-2001 before moving on to Division I Buffalo.

BATTLE TESTED

While Daemen may have cruised through ECC play this season, the Wildcats entered the postseason having played eight matches against teams that have earned NCAA tournament berths. Five of Daemen's seven losses have come against NCAA tournament qualifiers. The Wildcats own six wins over NCAA tournament teams: Edinboro, East Stroudsburg, Stonehill (2), Bentley and American International.

FORT MEYER

Grad student Caitlyn Meyer has made an immediate impact in her first and only season with the Wildcats. She is the ECC leader in kills per set (3.35) and total kills (365). She's the first Daemen player with more than 350 kills in a season since Ashley Drzymala (434) and Amber Drzymala (379) in 2016. A four-time ECC Player of the Week selection, Meyer has tallied 10+ kills in 24 of 32 matches and is also contributing 0.67 blocks per set. A Western New York native, Meyer is competing in a fifth collegiate season awarded to players by the NCAA due to COVID-19. She played the first four seasons of her career at the Division I level for James Madison.

JAS-ERCISE

Sophomore Jasmine Brundage has emerged as one of the premier defensive players in the ECC this season. A six-time ECC Defensive Player of the Week selection, Brundage is the ECC leader in total digs (519) and digs per set (4.51). Brundage has recorded 10+ digs in 28 of 33 matches and leads the Wildcats in sets played (115 of a possible 117). She is the first Daemen player with 500 digs in a season since Paige Tilert (542) in 2013. Brundage ranks 61st nationally in total digs.

SETTING THE TABLE

Sophomore Olivia Alessi has made quite the adjustment in her first season with the Wildcats. Recruited primarily as a defensive specialist, Alessi transitioned to setter early in the season as the Wildcats were dealt with a rash of injuries at the position. All she's done since then is average 9.20 assists per set (second in the ECC) while running the league's second most efficient offense. Alessi's 975 assists are the most for a Daemen player since Isa McCaffrey totaled 1,097 during the 2018 season. Alessi has nine matches this season with at least 40 assists and has also recorded a team-high 15 double-doubles. She's been named the ECC Setter of the Week three times, while teammate Dunja Masic has earned the award twice. Since the conference began recognizing a Setter of the Week in 2014, Daemen is the only team with multiple recipients in the same season.

UP THE MIDDLE

Daemen has gotten solid, perhaps unheralded, play out of starting middles Loren Alberts and Vanessa Kuliga this season. Alberts was contributing 1.62 kills per set on a .310 hitting percentage as well as 0.58 blocks per set before she was lost for the season with an injury suffered in the ECC tournament finals. Kuliga is a three-time ECC weekly honoree who was named the Most Outstanding Player of the ECC tournament. She is producing 1.98 kills and a team-high 0.69 blocks per set while hitting .326. In Alberts' absence, Daemen has turned to freshman Amelia Armstrong (1.36 kills/set, .358 hitting %) to fill the void. Armstrong recorded a career-high 11 kills in Daemen's regional quarterfinal win over Bentley.

ON THE OUTSIDE

Senior Sam Logan and junior Maggie Burns have both produced from the outside hitter position for the Wildcats this season. Logan ranks second on the team in fifth in the conference for kills per set (2.95). She is also producing from the service line where she ranks 22nd nationally in aces per set (0.49). Logan has produced nine double-doubles, including her last five matches. Burns is chipping in 2.18 kills and 2.82 digs per set with four double-doubles. The Kentucky native is in her second season with Daemen after transferring from Urbana where she earned Mountain East Conference Freshman of the Year honors in 2019.

WIN PLATEAUS

Daemen's 3-0 win over Le Moyne in the regular season finale marked the team's 20th of the season. It's the 12th time in team history (third in NCAA era) that the Wildcats have reached the 20-win mark. Daemen's regional finals win over AIC was their 25th of the season, marking the 10th 25-win season in team history (second in NCAA era).

AWARDS SEASON

Daemen put its stamp on the ECC's major awards and all-conference teams which were announced just prior to the start of the conference tournament. Caitlyn Meyer was named the ECC Player of the Year, while Jasmine Brundage earned ECC Libero of the Year honors. Both players were named to the All-ECC First Team and were joined by setter Olivia Alessi. All-ECC Second Team selections included middle blocker Loren Alberts and outside hitters Sam Logan and Maggie Burns. The six selections for Daemen marks the most by one team since the ECC expanded the all-conference team from 12 to 14 members in 2015. In addition, head coach Stephanie Albano was named the ECC Coach of the Year. It marks the third time in Albano's six-year tenure that she's been selected by her peers for the accolade.

WESTERN WASHINGTON SCOUTING REPORT

Western Washington is a member of the Great Northwest Athletic Conference and the Vikings are led by veteran head coach Diane Flick-Williams. Now in her 22nd season at the helm, Flick-Williams has presided over a program that's been a perennial GNAC and West Region contender. The Vikings have won four straight GNAC championships and are in the midst of the 15th NCAA tournament appearance in program history.

WWU won its fourth West Region championship and extended its winning streak to 19 straight matches with a 3-0 defeat of fifth-seeded Cal State Los Angeles on Dec. 4. Junior middle Chloe Roetcisoender recorded 13 kills on a .765 hitting percentage and added six blocks, while sophomore outside hitter Calley Heilborn contributed 10 kills and 13 digs to lead the Vikings.

Heilborn is averaging 3.20 kills per set to compliment GNAC Player of the Year Gabby Gunterman, a junior outside hitter. Gunterman is producing 3.27 kills per set on a .238 hitting percentage this season. Gunterman and junior middle Olivia Fairchild (2.49 kills/set, 1.37 blocks/set) were consensus All-West Region selections by the AVCA and D2CCA.

The Vikings have dominated at the net this season and will enter Thursday's national quarterfinal ranked second among the 285 Division II teams in blocks per set (2.76). WWU has produced 10+ blocks in 18 of 28 matches, including a season-high 19 in a five-set win over Alaska Fairbanks on Oct. 2.

Offensively, WWU is producing 13.68 kills per set on a .246 hitting percentage - both top-30 numbers in the country.

The Vikings are ranked 13th in the latest AVCA Top-25 poll marking their 121st consecutive week including in the national rankings, a streak that dates back to 2012. WWU has won 90 of their last 103 matches dating back to 2018.

STEPHANIE ALBANO

HEAD COACH • SIXTH SEASON • UNC-CHAPEL HILL, '09

A rising star on the college volleyball landscape, Stephanie Albano was named the eighth head coach in the history of the Daemen women's volleyball program on May 5, 2016, and she enters her sixth season at the helm in 2021. Over her first five seasons, Albano has led Daemen to a 76-50 overall record, a pair of East Coast Conference regular season championships, two NCAA tournament berths and one conference tournament title. The two-time East Coast Conference Coach of the Year has guided the Wildcats to wins in a staggering 73 percent of their regular season conference matches, as well as a 63-26 record against NCAA Division II East Region opponents.

In her inaugural season in the head coach's chair, Albano led the Wildcats to one of the most successful seasons in team history, going 25-8 overall and 13-1 in East Coast Conference play to capture the league's regular season championship. After finishing as the ECC Tournament runners-up, Albano's squad earned the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth, entering as the No. 2 seed in the East Regional portion of the tourney which was hosted at Daemen's Lumsden Gymnasium. Albano led the Wildcats to their first-ever NCAA Tournament victory, a 3-2 thriller over seventh-seeded Post on Dec. 1, 2016. One night later, Albano and the Wildcats moved past third-seeded New Haven with a 3-0 victory. Their history-making 2016 season came to an end in the regional finals, falling 3-2 to fourth-seeded American International.

For her efforts, Albano was named the 2016 ECC Coach of the Year. She was also named the 2016 NCAA Division II East Region Coach of the Year by the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA). The AVCA also named coach Albano as one of its 30 Under 30 Award recipients in the spring of 2017, recognizing coaches under the age of 30 for their contributions to the game.

After missing out on the postseason in 2017 when the team placed fifth in the ECC standings, Albano led the Wildcats back to glory in 2018, capturing her second ECC Coach of the Year award along the way. The Wildcats rattled off nine-straight wins to open conference play and finished with a 13-1 ECC mark to earn the regular season title. For the second time in three years, the ECC Tournament came to Lumsden Gymnasium, and this time Daemen sealed the deal, defeating fourth-seeded Bridgeport in the semifinals (3-1), followed by a 3-1 defeat of second-seeded and defending ECC champion Molloy in the finals. The Wildcats would go on to enter the NCAA Tournament as the No. 3 seed in the East Region, but their season came to an end with a 3-0 loss to No. 6 American International who went on to claim the regional crown.

In 2019, Albano guided the Wildcats to a third ECC Tournament berth, finishing third in the conference standings with a 5-5 mark. The Wildcats closed the campaign at 16-12 overall following a loss to Bridgeport in the ECC Tournament semifinals.

The 2020-21 academic year brought a new set of challenges which Albano met head on. The team's traditional fall season was wiped out by the COVID-19 pandemic, but Albano rallied her troops as the team put together a shortened and countable season played during the Spring 2021 semester. After opening with three consecutive setbacks, Albano led the team to three straight victories to close the unorthodox season with an even 3-3 mark.

OVERALL RECORD (6 SEASONS)	101-57 (.639)

Albano has coached players responsible for 11 all-conference selections, including five on the All-ECC First Team. She's also aided in the development of an ECC Player of the Year (Ashley Drzymala - 2016), an ECC Rookie of the Year (Bailey Dolegowski - 2016) and an ECC Co-Setter of the Year (Isa McCaffrey - 2018).

Before ascending to the head coaching position, Albano spent one season (2015) as the associate head coach on the Daemen staff under then-head coach Bob Maxwell. The duo oversaw marked improvement as the Wildcats increased their win total from two in 2014 to 12 a year later.

Albano came to Daemen from the University at Buffalo where she served as an assistant on coach Reed Sunahara's staff in 2014. In her one season on the Bulls' staff, Albano helped the team to a 17-15 overall record and the program's first appearance at the Mid-American Conference Tournament since 2010. She briefly served as the program's interim head coach when Sunahara accepted the head coaching position at West Virginia University in the spring of 2015.

Albano entered the coaching field as an assistant coach at Canisius College, working for former Golden Griffins' coach Cathy Hummel from 2009-10, and later was the associate head coach at Medaille College from 2012-14. While at Medaille, Albano helped the Mavericks to the program's first-ever Allegheny Mountain Collegiate Conference championship and a corresponding NCAA Division III Tournament appearance.

A Lancaster, N.Y. native, Albano helped the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill to two Atlantic Coast Conference championships during her collegiate career there from 2005-09. The former Stephanie Jansma is a big name in local volleyball circles and has been since her scholastic days which saw her lead Lancaster High School to the 2004 New York State Public High School Athletic Association Class AA championship while earning Gatorade New York State Player of the Year honors that season.

In addition to her volleyball coaching duties, Albano sits on the administrative leadership team for Daemen Athletics as the assistant athletics director for administration. She is responsible for a variety of administrative duties within the division of athletics, including oversight of the DC Will Lead Academy, a comprehensive leadership development program for student-athletes.

Mission Accomplished: Wildcats Win ECC Tournament Crown

Daemen extends winning streak to nine straight, earns automatic bid to NCAA tournament

AMHERST, N.Y. - That championship feeling was pulsating through Lumsden Gymnasium late this afternoon as top-seeded Daemen outlasted second-seeded Bridgeport in a thrilling five-set match (15-25, 25-18, 19-25, 25-16, 15-6) to win the 2021 East Coast Conference Volleyball Championship tournament. The Wildcats, now 22-7 on the season, will represent the ECC as the league's automatic qualifier for the upcoming NCAA Division II Championship. Regional bids, host sites and dates will be announced Monday at 7:30 p.m. on the NCAA Selection Show at ncaa.com.

Led by Vanessa Kuliga (Glenview, Ill.), who was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player, Daemen grabbed the second ECC tournament title in team history and their first since 2018. Today's win extended the Wildcats' winning streak to nine-straight matches - their longest since rattling off 15 consecutive victories during the 2016 campaign. Daemen has won 18 of their last 20 matches.

Bridgeport, which was appearing in the final round of the ECC Championship for the ninth time since 2008, finishes the season with an 18-10 record. The Purple Knights are left searching for their first conference championship since winning four straight from 2012-15.

UB pushed the Wildcats like no other ECC team has this season. The Wildcats entered today's match with a 39-1 record in sets won against ECC opponents. Daemen overcame a 2-1 deficit and snapped a nine-match losing streak in five-set affairs, including three earlier this season.

IMPACT PLAYERS

- Kuliga, who totaled 11 kills on a .450 hitting percentage in last night's semifinal round victory over fourth-seeded Molloy, was on top of her game again today for the Wildcats, especially down the stretch. The sophomore middle blocker shared match-high honors with 14 kills and posted a .300 hitting percentage. She added a career-high eight blocks (seven assisted, one solo). Kuliga totaled 25 kills, nine blocks and had a .360 hitting percentage in the two tournament matches.

- Senior outside hitter Sam Logan (Eden, N.Y.) recorded her second straight double-double, finishing with 14 kills and 11 digs. Six of her 13 career double-doubles have come this season.
- ECC Player of the Year Caitlyn Meyer (Clarence, N.Y.) flirted with a rare triple-double, finishing with 10 kills, nine digs and eight blocks (all assisted). Meyer has reached double-figure kills in 22 of 29 matches this season.
- Sophomores Olivia Alessi (East Aurora, N.Y.) and Jasmine Brundage (East Aurora, N.Y.) both played key roles in the Daemen victory. Alessi finished with 45 assists and a career-high five service aces while Brundage, the ECC Libero of the Year, posted a match-high 24 digs.
- Bridgeport was led by Amanda Hennemann who totaled 14 kills and 13 digs. Hennemann, the ECC Preseason Player of the Year, played exclusively at outside hitter today after being UB's libero for much of the season.
- Emily Burford and Paolo Hernandez tallied 10 kills apiece, and setter Jaden Drollinger dished out 37 assists to go with five aces.

CRUNCH TIME

After Bridgeport hammered 19 kills on a .326 hitting percentage in the third set to take a 2-1 lead, Daemen regrouped in time for the fourth. Leading 10-8, Daemen firmly grasped control of the set and saw the momentum turn in their favor during a 12-4 run. Logan and Kuliga each notched a pair of kills and Alessi served an ace in the spurt which put the Wildcats ahead 22-12. Meyer ended the frame shortly thereafter, sending the match to a fifth and deciding set.

With Daemen leading 5-4 early in the fifth set, the Wildcats embarked on the match's defining run. They rattled off eight consecutive points with Logan at the service line for seven of them. Logan put down two aces and Meyer added a pair of kills. When UB finally stopped the spurt, they were on the cusp of defeat, trailing 13-5. Kuliga picked up Daemen's 14th point on a kill, and the match came to an end when Meyer - Daemen's go-to player all season long - finessed a kill to the UB side of the floor which ignited a raucous celebration on the Lumsden Gymnasium court.

GAME NOTES

- Daemen hosted the ECC Championship for the third time since the program gained full NCAA Division II membership in 2015. Daemen first hosted in 2016 when they advanced to the final round before falling to second-seeded New York Tech. The tournament returned in 2018 when the Wildcats hoisted the championship trophy following wins over fourth-seeded Bridgeport and second-seeded Molloy. After tonight's win, Daemen is 5-2 all-time in ECC Championship play.
- This is the first ECC Championship to be held since 2019. The tournament and entire conference season was wiped out in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- With tonight's win, Daemen improves to 20-4 against in-region opponents this season. Since the 2016 season, Daemen has won 74% of games against East Region opponents (81-29).
- Daemen improved to 9-10 all-time against Bridgeport, including a 6-4 mark in meetings played at Lumsden Gymnasium. Daemen is 2-1 all-time against UB in ECC tournament matches.
- Daemen extended their home winning streak to 11 straight matches. The Wildcats are 10-0 at home this season, and have posted a 31-9 home record since the start of the 2018 season.
- Daemen is ranked fourth in the NCAA East Region poll released earlier this week by the regional advisory committee. The East Region of NCAA Division II is comprised of teams from the East Coast Conference, Northeast-10 Conference and Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference, and the regional rankings are used to determine at-large bids to the East Regional portion of the NCAA Tournament following the respective conference tournaments later this month.
- The Wildcats have reached the 20-win plateau for the 12th time in program history, as well as the third time as an NCAA program. Daemen's 22 wins are the most in a season since 2016 when they advanced to the East Regional finals and finished with a 25-8 record.
- Daemen finished with 11 blocks - one shy of their season-high (12 in win over Stonehill).
- Daemen's last five-set victory came September 7, 2019 against Urbana.

Elite Status: Wildcats Claim East Region Championship Over Top-Seeded AIC

Daemen snaps AIC win streak at 22, advances to NCAA Division II Elite Eight

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. - For the first time in program history, the Daemen women's volleyball team is headed to the NCAA Division II Women's Volleyball Championship Elite Eight. The Wildcats claimed the 2021 East Region championship by stunning top-seeded American International 3-1 (25-20, 22-25, 25-21, 25-19) in their home gym this evening.

Daemen will learn its national quarterfinal opponent Sunday when the seeds for the Elite Eight are announced at ncaa.com. The Elite Eight runs from December 9-11 at the Bob Martinez Athletics Center on the campus of the University of Tampa (Fla.).

Daemen, the East Region's No. 2 seed, extended its winning streak to 12 straight matches, improving to 25-7 this season. The Wildcats have won 20 of their last 22 matches, and tonight's victory snapped AIC's 22-match winning streak. It ranked as the second longest active winning streak in the country entering tonight's contest. The Wildcat victory was five years in the making as they repaid the Yellow Jackets for their 2016 East Region championship win on Daemen's home floor.

Daemen advanced to tonight's regional final with wins over seventh-seeded Bentley (3-2) and third-seeded Stonehill (3-1). The Wildcats saved their most complete match for the final. Offensively, Daemen racked up 60 kills on a .217 hitting percentage. Defensively, the Wildcats matched their season-high with 106 digs.

IMPACT PLAYERS

- Senior outside hitter Sam Logan (Eden, N.Y.) and graduate right side Caitlyn Meyer (Clarence, N.Y.) paced a balanced Daemen offense as they combined for 32 kills while each recording double-doubles. Logan posted a match-high 17 kills and added 10 digs, one solo block and a service ace. Meyer finished with 15 kills, 17 digs and four assisted blocks - her best production of the tournament to date.
- Junior outside hitter Maggie Burns (Louisville, Ky.) made her presence felt with five kills in the opening set and finished with 12 kills and 20 digs, while sophomore Vanessa Kuliga (Glenview, Ill.) chipped in nine kills.

- Sophomore setter Olivia Alessi (East Aurora, N.Y.) recorded her team-leading 15th double-double of the season, finishing with 48 assists and a career-high 21 digs.
- Sophomore defensive specialist Jasmine Brundage (East Aurora, N.Y.) led all players with 27 digs.
- Logan, Meyer, Burns, Kuliga, Alessi and Brundage were all named to the East Regional All-Tournament Team.
- AIC's Andrea Serra-Rosa, the consensus East Region Player of the Year, totaled 14 kills, as did Paolo Soto-Burgos to pace the Yellow Jackets.
- Naomi Eckert-Rivera recorded a double-double (42 assists, 21 digs) and Amanda Rodriguez had a team-high 22 digs in defeat.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Daemen's offense was firing on all cylinders right from the outset as the Wildcats pounded down 17 kills on a .267 hitting percentage while winning the opening set. The Wildcats took control with a 7-3 run midway through, turning a 10-10 tie into a 17-13 advantage. AIC battled back to get within 20-19, but a kill from DC's Kuliga sparked a 5-1 run that included a set-ending kill by Logan.

While Daemen's offense continued to click in the second set (16 kills, .224 hitting percentage), AIC responded with 15 kills and a .273 hitting percentage. The teams traded the lead three times before a 9-4 spurt gave AIC control, leading 20-16. Daemen got within 24-22 on a kill by Logan, but AIC evened the match following a Daemen hitting error on the ensuing point.

The teams continued to trade points through the third set. AIC led 17-16 when Daemen embarked on a 7-2 spurt to flip the script. Burns, Logan, Kuliga and Meyer all recorded kills in the run, and Brundage added a service ace. Meyer's second kill of the run put Daemen ahead 23-19 and the Wildcats closed the set on a kill by freshman middle blocker Amelia Armstrong (River Falls, Wisc.).

Daemen jumped out to an early 9-4 lead in the fourth set, and although AIC pulled within 9-8, the Wildcats never surrendered the lead. AIC committed a serving error on the ensuing point and Daemen maintained at least two points of separation for the remainder of the set. When the Yellow Jackets pulled within 20-18, Logan came through with a kill and an ace during a quick 3-0 run that put them on the verge of the upset. Serra-Rosa momentarily kept AIC in it with a kill, but Daemen responded with back-to-back kills from Kuliga and Meyer to end the match.

QUOTABLE - HEAD COACH STEPHANIE ALBANO

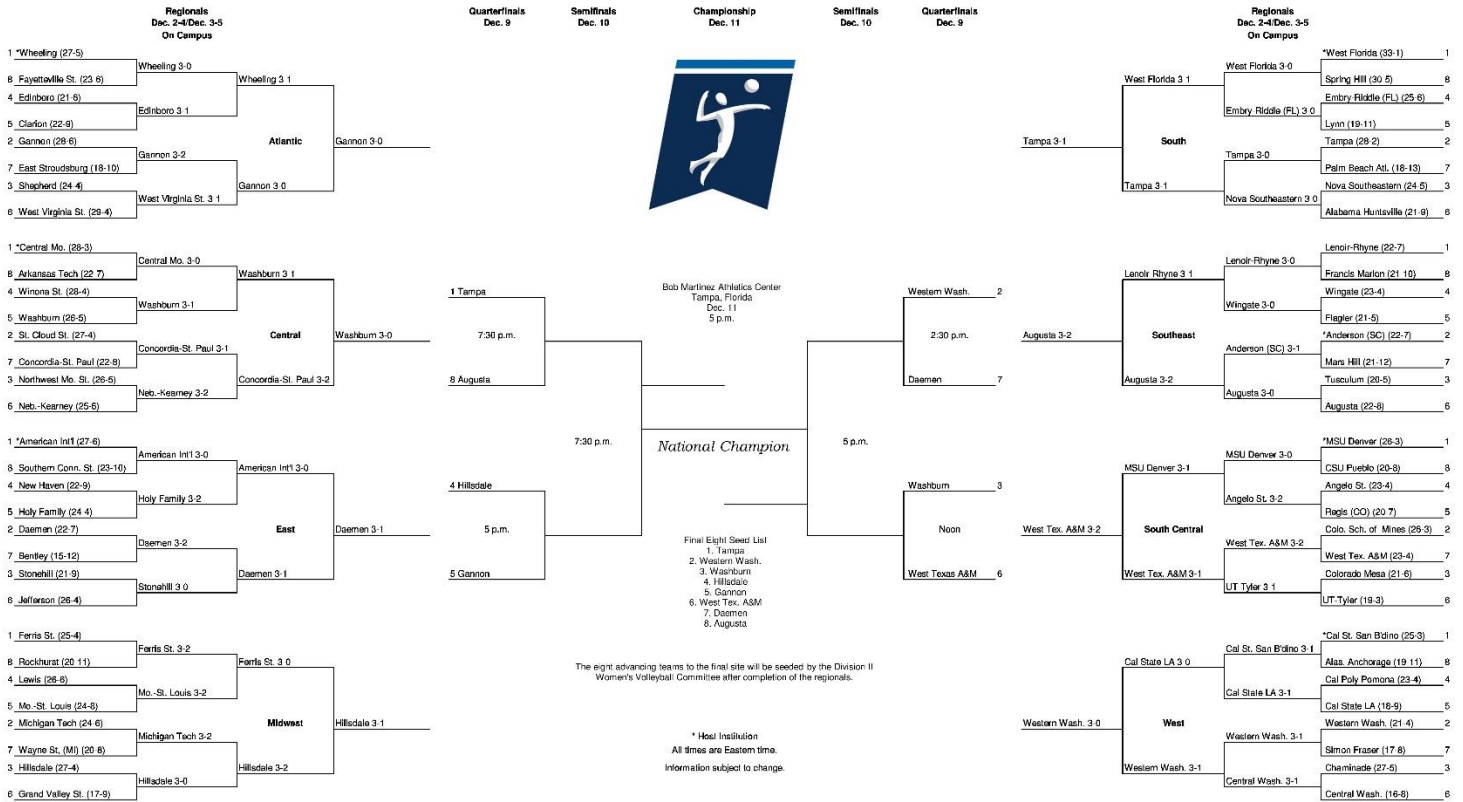

- "We talked a lot about being balanced offensively and really getting our middles and right sides involved early. The last two days we've been really heavy on the outside with our offense. We executed that plan very well, and it's mostly thanks to our passing. We had our best passing match of the season tonight."
- "We've really had a target on our back for most the last two months, but we talked about being able to go back to the underdog mentality tonight. The pressure was on AIC to keep their streak alive and to do it in their gym. That allowed us to play really aggressive right from the start."

GAME NOTES

- Daemen improved to 5-2 all-time in NCAA tournament play. The Wildcats are making the third NCAA tournament appearance in program history (2016, 2018, 2021).
- This is the first NCAA Division II Women's Volleyball Championship to be held since 2019. The tournament was wiped out in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- With today's win, Daemen improves to 20-3 against East Region opponents this season. Since the 2016 season, Daemen is 84-29 against East Region opponents.
- Daemen picked up just its second win in six lifetime meetings with AIC and snapped a four-match slide in the series. AIC had eliminated Daemen from the 2016 and 2018 NCAA tournaments and scored a 3-2 win over the Wildcats earlier this season (Sept. 17 at the Redhawks Classic hosted by Roberts Wesleyan).
- The Wildcats have reached the 25-win plateau for the 10th time in program history, as well as the second time as an NCAA program. Daemen's 25 wins are the most in a season since 2016 when they finished with a 25-8 record.
- Daemen's 12-match win streak is the program's longest since rattling off 15 in a row during the 2016 season when they advanced to the regional finals, also known as the "Sweet 16."
- Daemen is the 14th East Coast Conference team to advance to the Elite Eight in the last 20 seasons.
- This marks the third East Region championship for Daemen teams during the 2021 calendar year. Daemen claimed regional titles in men's and women's basketball last March.
